

GRE®

GRE LEXICON

— |

| —

— |

| —

PREFACE

GRE® Lexicon is a part of your GRE® classroom coaching program. It is designed to prepare you for GRE® Text Completion and Sentence Equivalence questions. The booklet contains words which have appeared in the past GRE® tests. So to prepare for your Verbal Reasoning section, you should familiarize and memorize yourself with all the words of this booklet.

The booklet is divided into 31 Wordlists and each wordlist contains 25 words. Each word in the Wordlist is exhaustively treated to offer a clear idea of all the aspects of a word—meaning, usage, synonyms, and antonyms. The meanings given are brief and to the point. They are often followed by examples—sample sentences or phrases showing how the word is actually used in speech and writing. The words marked with an asterisk (*) are high-frequency words that appear most often on the GRE®.

While learning a Wordlist, you will invariably find that you have already come across about 10-15 of these words, but you hadn't cared to learn them properly. Study these already-seen words carefully. The remaining words which you have come across for the first time, will have to be learned more thoroughly.

The GRE® Lexicon ends with Word Groups and Common Confusing GRE® Words.

— |

| —

— |

| —

Table of Contents

1.	Wordlist 1	7
2.	Wordlist 2	9
3.	Wordlist 3	11
4.	Wordlist 4	13
5.	Wordlist 5	15
6.	Wordlist 6	17
7.	Wordlist 7	19
8.	Wordlist 8	21
9.	Wordlist 9	23
10.	Wordlist 10	25
11.	Wordlist 11	27
12.	Wordlist 12	29
13.	Wordlist 13	31
14.	Wordlist 14	33
15.	Wordlist 15	35
16.	Wordlist 16	37
17.	Wordlist 17	39
18.	Wordlist 18	41
19.	Wordlist 19	43
20.	Wordlist 20	45
21.	Wordlist 21	47
22.	Wordlist 22	49
23.	Wordlist 23	51
24.	Wordlist 24	53
25.	Wordlist 25	55
26.	Wordlist 26	57
27.	Wordlist 27	59
28.	Wordlist 28	61
29.	Wordlist 29	63
30.	Wordlist 30	65
31.	Wordlist 31	67
32.	Word Groups	69
33.	Common Confusing GRE® Words	79

— |

| —

— |

| —

Wordlist 1

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	aberration*	1] Departure from what is right. 2] A deviation from the normal or the typical. 3] Mental derangement or lapse.	abnormality, anomaly, deviation	conformity, regularity, mean, norm
2	abeyance*	A holding up or putting aside for future action.	suspension, dormancy, deferral	continuation, revival
3	abject	1] Sunk to a low condition; despicable: an abject coward . 2] Hopelessly low; wretched: abject poverty	contemptible, degraded, shameful, miserable, squalid	dignified, noble, comfortable, exalted
4	abjure	To renounce rights on oath or give up publicly opinion, stance.	renounce, relinquish, retract, abdicate	retain, take charge, claim, usurp
5	abnegate	Deny oneself; renounce	resignate, relinquish	appropriate, usurp
6	abscond*	Run away and hide especially in order to escape the law.	slip away, decamp	endure, give up, remain
7	absolve	1] To free from a debt, obligation, promise; or ruling: His illness absolved him from attending the meeting . 2] To acquit, as of guilt or wrong-doing; forgive: A priest absolves sinners .	excuse, exempt, pardon, exonerate	oblige, bind, condemn, convict, blame
8	abstemious*	1] Moderate, especially in eating and drinking. 2] Characterised by abstinence.	temperate	self-indulgent
9	abstinence	Refraining from doing without certain foods, drinks, or pleasures: He was proud of his abstinence from smoking and drinking .	temperance, self-deprivation	indulgence, intemperance
10	abstruse*	Difficult to understand: For most people nuclear physics is an abstruse subject .	obscure, complex, mysterious	simple, plain, intelligible
11	abut	To touch or join at the edge or side; border: Our farm abuts our neighbor's property .	adjoin, border	separate, disconnect
12	abrasive	Tending to wear down or rub away: the abrasive action of an emery board .	biting, wearing, polishing	pleasing, smooth
13	abrogate	Repeal, cancel. Abrogation of the treaty with a foreign power . The word differs in meaning from 'arrogate' which is to claim power, privilege, etc. unduly.	reverse, retract, abolish	approve, sanction
14	accolade*	An honor or award: They heaped accolades upon the astronaut .	praise, tribute, laurels	criticism, rebuke
15	accost	To approach and speak to: A beggar accosted him in the street . Usage: The word accost is unpleasant or threatening in tone.	address, hail, confront	avoid, ignore, shun

16	accouterments	A soldier's equipment, other than clothing and weaponry: knapsacks, canteens, gun belts, and other military accouterments.	accessory, furnishing, trappings	—
17	accrue	1] To come as a natural result, addition, or advantage: Many benefits accrued to the nation when women became eligible to vote. 2] To be added periodically: One year's interest had accrued on his savings account.	accumulate, collect, aggregate	lose, disperse
18	acme	The highest point: A Rolls Royce is considered the acme of automotive excellence.	height, peak, summit	nadir
19	acolyte	An attendant, follower or helper, generally of an important person.	helper, attendant	—
20	acquiescent*	Willing to go along with something: Because there was a school dance that night, the teacher was acquiescent to their request for less homework.	complaint, agreeable	opposed, adverse
21	acrid	1] Disagreeably sharp, bitter, or pungent: the acrid odor of acid. 2] Sharp and biting in manner. His acrid attack on his enemy included charges of extortion, bribery, and deceit.	penetrating, irritating. caustic, sarcastic, vitriolic	bland, mild. kind, gentle
22	actuate	1] To set into action or motion: a lever actuated by an electric current. 2] To influence or impel to action: He was actuated by feelings of pity.	move, drive, start, urge	discourage, prevent, stop
23	acumen	Shrewdness in understanding or dealing with a situation: Business acumen.	cleverness, smartness	naivete
24	adduce	To bring forward examples, reason, or proof for consideration in a discussion or analysis: to adduce evidence on automobile safety records.	cite, allege	repudiate
25	adroit	Skillful or prepared in the use of bodily or mental powers; dexterous or expert: adroit in mathematics.	clever, deft, handy	awkward, clumsy, dull

Wordlist 2

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	adulation*	Excessive praise or admiration. Despite her criminal conviction, she enjoyed considerable adulation.	applause, tribute	criticism
2	adulterate*	Corrupt, debase, or make impure by adding a foreign or inferior substance; often by replacing valuable ingredients with inferior ones	debase, dilute, pollute	cleanse, purify, refine
3	adventitious*	Accidental, coming by chance. What the girl's parents look for in the boy is much more than some adventitious gifts like speech or manners.	accidental, fortuitous	planned, intentional, premeditated
4	aegis	With the patronage or support. The students spearheaded a campaign under the aegis of Amnesty International.	auspices, protection	—
5	aesthetic*	Of or showing appreciation of beauty, artistic, tasteful.	artistic, virtuoso, connoisseur, dilettante	displeasing, ugly
6	affable*	Pleasant and easy to approach: the interviewer was affable and friendly.	cordial, genial	disagreeable
7	affectation*	An artificial display or manner: Grandfather's love of classical music was mere affectation.	pretense, pose, air	artlessness
8	affluence	Abundant wealth: New cars and expensive homes attest to the affluence of a nation.	opulence, abundance, riches	poverty, destitution, deprivation
9	affray	A noisy and violent fight, especially in a public place. The men were charged with causing an affray.	altercation, fracas	agreement, tranquility
10	affront	To insult openly or purposely. They were affronted by their abrupt dismissal.	abuse, offend, slander	appease, compliment
11	aficionado	Devoted follower of some sport. Cricket aficionados have received the news of Australia pulling out of World Cup with chagrin.	buff, devotee	—
12	aggrandizement*	The accumulation of power, rank, or wealth: He put the welfare of his country above personal aggrandizement.	advancement	degradation
13	agnostic	One who believes that there can be no proof of the existence of God, but does not deny the possibility that God exists.	—	—
14	alacrity*	Willingness or readiness to respond or act quickly: The President responded with alacrity to the imminent danger by calling the National Guard.	quickness, promptness, speed, swiftness, liveliness	sluggishness, hesitation, reluctance
15	alibi	1] A legal defense by which an accused person tries to show that he was somewhere else when the crime was committed: His alibi was that he was in the hospital at the time of the murder. 2] Informal; an excuse: He used a faulty alarm clock as his alibi for being late to work.	excuse	—

16	allege	1] To assert as true in the absence of proof: They alleged that he had been seen purchasing the murder weapon. 2] To plead as an excuse or reason: He alleged over-work as the cause of his neglect.	cite, claim, profess	hostility, enmity, antipathy
17	allegiance*	Loyalty; faithful adherence: allegiance to the flag.	dedication, devotion, fidelity	severe, dissociate, separate.
18	allude	To make direct or casual mention (used with 'to'): At the interview, she alluded to her father's influential friends.	insinuate, suggest	—
19	ally	1] To affiliate in a common cause or defense: Political bosses often ally themselves with the leading candidate. 2] A person, nation, etc. associated with another for a specific purpose: wartime allies.	join, link, friend, backer, associate	enemy, foe, opponent
20	altercation	A heated dispute, wrangling (often accompanied by blows): The union meeting remained free of any altercations.	controversy, debate, quarrel	cooperation, agreement
21	alternate*	1] To follow or cause to follow one another by turns: Good and bad times alternate. 2] To take turns at: Soldiers alternated sentry duty. 2] Every other; every second: The city museum is open on alternate weekends. 4] A substitute: An alternate is available if a delegate becomes ill.	interchange, additional, extra deputy, replacement, proxy	—
22	altruism*	Selfless devotion to the well-being of another: The Peace Corps appeals to youthful altruism.	unselfishness, idealism	egoism, selfishness
23	amalgam*	A combination or mingling of two or more things: Her confused feelings were an amalgam of love, hate, and fear.	union, alloy, mixture	hateful
24	ambivalence*	Simultaneous conflicting feelings towards a person or thing, such as love and hate. She was in a state of ambivalence about having children.	doubt, oscillation	certain, unequivocal
25	ameliorate*	To make or become better: Congress was urged to pass legislation to ameliorate the condition of the American Indian.	improve, upgrade	worsen, damage, deteriorate

Wordlist 3

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	amenable	Willing to be persuaded or to submit to direction or authority: The union was amenable to a proposal for wage increase.	pliable, tractable	uncooperative
2	amiable*	Likeable, friendly, pleasant ... The bluff and amiable manner of the successful American man.	affable	ill-natured, surly
3	amicable	Characterised by goodwill or friendship: Both parties reached an amicable settlement to the dispute. Usage: Amicable is normally used to describe a person.	peaceable, well-intentioned	unfriendly, hostile
4	amnesty*	1] A warrant granting release from punishment for an offense. 2] The formal act of liberating someone	absolution, pardon	sentencing
5	amorphous	Having no clear shape, structure, or boundaries: a large and amorphous department.	nebulous, unformed, vague	defined, distinct
6	amplitude	1] Breadth or width: To Imran's yorkers, Vishy unleashed the full amplitude of his strokes. 2] Abundance	gamut, range, scale,	—
7	anachronism	1] Something located at a time when it could not have existed or occurred. 2] An artifact that belongs to another time	—	—
8	analogy*	A comparison or similarity between two things that are alike in some way. He drew an analogy between his mother and God, watching over everything.	comparision, parallel	difference
9	anchorite	A person who lives alone, apart from society, for religious meditation; a hermit; a recluse	ascetic, monk	sybarite
10	angst	An anxious, often neurotic feeling, caused by worrying about the state of the world: She was full of uncertainty and angst that reflected in her writings.	anxiety	—
11	anomalous*	Deviating from the ordinary rule or condition, or from what would normally be expected; unusual: The incorruptible politician was an anomalous person in the depraved system.	abnormal, atypical, aberrant	normal, usual, typical
12	antagonistic	Being hostile; acting in opposition.	hostile, antipathy, enmity, opponent	pacific, concord, cooperation
13	antipathy*	A feeling of intense dislike	animus, aversion	affection, liking
14	antithesis	1] The direct opposite; a strong contrast: Pleasure is the antithesis of pain. 2] Opposition, contrast: the antithesis of cold and hot.	reverse, contrary	agreement, accord
15	apathy*	1] Lack of emotion: the apathy of a depressed person. 2] Lack of interest; indifference: the apathy toward religion in modern times.	insensibility, unconcern, coolness, neutrality	feeling, excitement, sensitivity, interest, concern, involvement

16	aphorism	A short and clever or witty sentence which expresses a general truth. ... The proper study of mankind is man.	maxim, adage, apothegm	—
17	aplomb*	Assurance, self-confidence: She acted with aplomb in the most difficult social situations.	poise, self-possession, calmness, surety	confusion, doubt, discomposure, embarrassment
18	apocalyptic	Of, like, or having to do with a revelation: a sermon with almost apocalyptic overtones.	prophetic, revelatory	—
19	apocryphal*	Having little or no authenticity: He told an apocryphal story about lassoing a grizzly bear.	questionable, spurious, dubious	authentic, genuine, reliable
20	apostasy	Desertion of one's faith, religion, party, principles, etc.	—	—
21	apposite	Strikingly appropriate; apt. An apposite remark.	apt, pertinent	unsuitable
22	apprise*	To notify, as of some event: to be apprised of a friend's engagement.	inform, tell, advise	—
23	arable	Capable of being plowed or cultivated: Rocky soil is usually not arable.	—	—
24	arbitrary	1] Based merely on one's own opinion, judgment, prejudice, etc: When he finally learned all the facts he regretted his arbitrary decision. 2] Bound by no law or rules: an arbitrary dictator.	1] capricious, 2] absolute, despotic.	1] reasonable, 2] restricted, limited
25	arcane	Secret; hidden	mysterious, obscure, esoteric	commonplace, familiar

Wordlist 4

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	archaic	1] Belonging to an earlier period and no longer in common use, as a word or phrase: 'Methinks' is an archaic word. 2] Belonging to a former time: antiquated: an exhibition of archaic pottery.	1] old-fashioned, obsolete, 2] primitive, ancient	1] current, 2] new, modern
2	archetype	A first model, form, or pattern from which others are derived or copied: Daniel Boone was the archetype of the American frontiersman.	ideal, prototype	—
3	ardor*	Strong emotion or enthusiasm: He spoke of his country with the ardor of a true patriot.	passion, fervor, zeal	—
4	arraign*	To call into court to answer to a charge or accusation: The prisoner will be arraigned tomorrow.	incriminate, indict	acquit, exonerate
5	arrant	Out-and-out; thorough (used in a negative sense): arrant nonsense; arrant fool.	downright, utter	—
6	array	An array of things or people, especially when they are impressive or attractive: They looked at the tempting array of cakes and cookies.	—	—
7	arrogate	Take or claim unjustly: She arrogated her father's tea estates to herself.	appropriate, seize, usurp,	renounce, relinquish
8	artifice	The clever use of tricks to deceive	—	—
9	askance	1] With distrust: Farmers look askance at city slickers. 2] With a side glance, obliquely: She looked askance at the mirror as she hurried by.	2] indirect, sidelong	—
10	assay	1] To test the fineness, purity 2] An appraisal of the state of affairs 3] A trial or an attempt.	2] attempt, check	—
11	assiduous*	Showing or marked by constant effort and attention; an assiduous student; assiduous research.	diligent	lazy, lax
12	assuage*	1] To make less harsh or severe: Time will assuage his grief. 2] To satisfy: The cold spring water assuaged his thirst.	alleviate, appease, mitigate, sate	aggravate, exacerbate
13	astute	Having or coming from a shrewd, clever mind: Psychiatrists are astute observers of people.	sharp, keen	stupid, unintelligent
14	attrition	1] A gradual wearing down or weakening: a war of attrition; the attrition of a nation's economy. 2] A rubbing or grinding down, as by friction: the attrition of rocks by glaciers.	erosion, abrasion	strengthening
15	audacity*	1] Boldness; daring: The Apaches were famous for their skill and audacity as warriors. 2] Disregard of decency or courtesy: She had the audacity to ask how much I had paid for my dress.	1] bravery, 2] impudence, brazenness, nerve	—

16	augment	To make or become greater, as in size, number, or amount: He augmented his small income by driving a taxi on weekends.	increase, enlarge, enhance	decrease, reduce, degrade
17	augur	1] A person who foretells the future. 2] To be a sign or omen of: Her good nature augurs lifelong popularity.	soothsayer, prophet	—
18	august	1] Inspiring awe or reverence, imposing: the august aura of the old cathedral. 2] Of high rank or birth: an august justice of the Supreme Court.	1] majestic, stately, awesome, 2] honoured, eminent	—
19	autarchy	Absolute rule or sovereignty; autocracy, despotism. Note that this word differs in meaning from ‘Autarky’ which implies economic self-sufficiency	—	—
20	avant-garde	The group, especially in the arts, regarded as being the most experimental: Op art and pop art were the rage among the avant-garde. Having to do with the bold, new, or experimental: New novels often exhibit avant-garde tendencies. Etym: In French, this word literally means ‘advance guard’.	innovative, radical, far-out, extreme	conservative, old-fashioned, routine, traditional
21	avarice	Passion for accumulating riches: greed: Some politicians are motivated by avarice.		philanthropy, charity
22	aver*	To declare to be true; state positively; affirm.	assert, avow	—
23	avid	1] Eager; enthusiastic: He was an avid football fan. 2] Greedy: The whole family was avid for success.	1] zealous 2] rapacious	1] indifferent, uninterested
24	avocation	A casual or occasional occupation: Her avocation was collecting stamps.	hobby, diversion, pastime	—
25	awry	1] Toward one side: Your cap is awry. 2] Wrong; out of the right course: Our picnic plans went awry because of the rain.	amiss, askew	aligned, even

Wordlist 5

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	axiom	A self-evident or universally recognized truth: It is an axiom that nature abhors a vacuum.	theorem, law, truism, principle	—
2	baffle	To confuse, bewilder, perplex: The unsolved crime baffled the police.	befuddle, confound, mystify	explain, enlighten
3	bacchanal	Wild, drunken merry-making. Etym: From the Roman festival Bacchanalia, in honour of Bacchus the god of wine who was also known as Dionysus: A night of Bacchanalian revelry.	debauch, revelry, jollity	—
4	badger	To nag at or harass: He badgered me into going to a football game with him.	pester, pressure, irritate, hound	—
5	bailiwick	One's particular area of activity, authority or interest; generally used in the context of politician's strong constituency, or an area in which a private company's products dominate the market.	—	—
6	balderdash	Senseless talk or writing; nonsense	rubbish, twaddle	meaningful, sensible
7	baleful	Evil, sinister, harmful. The prisoner gave the judge a baleful look.	menacing, ominous	benign, innocuous
8	balk	1] To stop short and refuse to proceed or take action: The donkey balked when he saw the steep cliff. 2] To render unsuccessful; thwart: Quick police action balked the attempted robbery. 3] A hindrance, defeat, or disappointment: Timidity is a balk to success. Spelling tip: Be sure to write the l in this word but do not pronounce it.	deterrent, impediment	—
9	baloney	Nonsense: The plot of the film is pure baloney.	—	—
10	bamboozle	To deceive or cheat by trickery; dupe; to confuse; to puzzle: Their sermons were intended to bamboozle the workers into obedience.	mystify, stump	—
11	banal*	Meaningless from overuse; trite: His speech on brotherly love, delivered at the peak of the riot, sounded banal and out of place.	stereotyped, vapid	original
12	bane	The cause of distress, death or ruin; curse. The costly system of files and folders is the bane of hospital administration.	curse, nemesis, scourge	—
13	banter	Playful ridicule: He was amused by their banter about his late arrival.	badinage, raillery, repartee, riposte	—
14	barb	Pointedness or sting, as of wit; also, a stinging remark: attacking political candidates with personal barbs.	jibe	compliment
15	baroque	Of or characteristic of the art and architecture of the 17th century, which was elaborately ornate and had curved rather than straight lines: The building's baroque style looked out of place in the midst of modern buildings.	—	—
16	bastion	1] In fortifications, the part of a rampart that projects so as to give a wider firing range. 2] Any fortified or strongly defended place, position, thing, etc.: a bastion of democracy.	defense	—

17	bathos	A literary term; an anticlimax or sudden descent from the sublime to the commonplace.	anticlimax	—
18	bawdy	Obscene language.	lewd, dirty, vulgar	—
19	beatific	Giving or expressing blessedness or bliss: the Madonna's beatific smile .	angelic, seraphic	—
20	becoming	Appropriate or attractive: a very becoming, dress .	flattering, suiting	—
21	bedlam	Scene of uproar with noise and confusion: A nightmarish bedlam of shrieking, weeping and vomiting .	chaos, pandemonium	—
22	beguile	Mislead by cheating or tricking. He used newspapers to beguile the readers into buying shares in his company .	captivate, bewitch	—
23	behemoth	Any large beast or thing.	colossus, mammoth	—
24	behoove	To be necessary, fit, or proper (used impersonally): It behooves me to leave before I overstay my welcome .	—	—
25	beleaguer	1] To force: The town was beleaguered for two weeks before friendly troops arrived. 2] To beset; harass: The widow was beleaguered by the problems of raising five children.	1] beset, beseige 2] badger, worry	—

Wordlist 6

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	bellicose	Having or showing a ready disposition to fight.	aggressive, combative	—
2	belligerent	having or showing a tendency to fight: His belligerent attitude consistently gets him into trouble.	pugnacious, quarrelsome, hostile	—
3	bemused	Confused, bewildered: She was faintly bemused by his questions. She gave him a bemused look.	baffled, confounded	—
4	benchmark	Something whose quality, quantity, or capability is known and which can therefore, be used as a standard, with which other things can be compared: ... having used economic criteria as the sole benchmark for success, value or achievement.	criterion, yardstick	—
5	benediction	The expression of a blessing or good wishes: He received his father's benediction before he went overseas.	approval, encouragement, sanction	curse, malediction, denunciation
6	beneficence*	Goodness or kindness: Her beneficence touched everyone around her.	charity, benevolence	economy, meanness, stinginess, selfishness
7	beneficial	Helpful: Country air is beneficial to health.	generosity, graciousness	harmful, bad, injurious, detrimental
8	benevolence*	Kindliness or charitableness: the benevolence of nuns in caring for the homeless.	advantageous, useful, good, salutary	cruelty, destructiveness, misanthropy
9	benign*	1] Favorable or mild: a benign influence; a benign climate. 2] Not dangerous or harmful: a benign tumor.	altruism, kindness, humaneness, philanthropy	—
10	bequeath	To leave as an inheritance: In his will he bequeathed his estate to his son. Moral concepts bequeathed to us by the Victorian era.	—	disinherit
11	berate*	To scold severely: She berated him for his cowardice.	will, devise, transmit	praise, acclaim, extol, laud, commend
12	bereavement	To scold severely: She berated him for his cowardice.	lambast, upbraid, chide, censure, rebuke, reprove	—
13	berserk	State of sorrow over the death or departure of a loved one. The young widow bore her bereavement bravely.	mourning	—
14	bete noire	In a frenzy of wild rage; violently destructive: The wounded beast went berserk with pain.	crazy, mad, frenzied, out of control, amok	calm, peaceful, placid, tranquil
15	bigotry	Aperson or thing feared or disliked and avoided :... declaration of personal assets to the Income Tax department is a politician's bete noire.	—	—
16	bilious	Bitter, hostile prejudice, as against a group race, religion, etc: The shameless bigotry of the whites against the blacks in South Africa.	dogmatism	—
17	bizarre	Peevish in temper: a bilious old codger.	ill-tempered, choleric, cross, irritable	amiable, sweet tempered, good humoured
		Very different from what is usual or normal: bizarre art forms.	fantastic, odd, eccentric, weird	common, natural, ordinary

18	blanch	To whiten, turn pale: The men returned from the graveyard, their faces blanched.	pale	—
19	blandishment*	Flattering speech or actions: It was difficult to resist the blandishments of the salesman.	cajolery, coaxing, palaver	abuse, criticism
20	blase	Someone who is blase shows no excitement, interest or pleasure in things that other people consider exciting or interesting, usually because they have experienced them before; used for people's behaviour and attitudes: her superior, blase air.	bored, sophisticated, uninterested	—
21	blasphemy*	Words or actions that deliberately mock or show contempt for sacred things, especially for God: His blasphemies against God and country made him unpopular.	heresy, sacrilege	piety, reverence
22	blatant	1] Disagreeably loud: a blatant jukebox. 2] Completely or crassly obvious: Some young people show a blatant contempt for tradition.	1] noisy, piercing, clamorous. 2] obtrusive, brazen	quiet, subdued
23	bleak	Cold; dismal; barren: a bleak coast: The future looks pretty bleak.	cheerless, bare, gloomy	sunny
24	blithe	Joyous, gay: a blithe spirit.	jocund, sprightly	morose, somber
25	bohemian*	A person, especially an artist, poet, etc. who lives in an unconventional, non-conforming way. his Bohemian ways of handling problems.	nonconformist	traditionalist

Wordlist 7

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	boisterous*	Noisy and wild: a boisterous mob.	raucous, rowdy, riotous	restrained
2	bondage	Slavery, serfdom. How distinctly 'bond' and 'bondage' differ in their meanings is brought out by Oscar Wilde: " It is he who has broken the bond of marriage – not I. I only break its bondage. "	slavery, thrall	emancipation
3	bolster*	To encourage, support.: The alarm bolstered their sense of security.	reinforce, shore	undermine, weaken
4	bon mot	(From French) An apt, clever, or witty remark: His speech was spiced with bons mots and much homespun wisdom.	–	–
5	bowdlerize	To prudishly remove supposedly objectionable matter from a manuscript, etc.: The censor bowdlerized the avant-garde movie.	censor, expurgate	–
6	braggadocio	Empty boasting, or a person who engages in such boasting: the braggadocio of a teenager.	bluster	humility
7	bravado	A pretense of bravery: His attempt at resistance was sheer bravado.	bluster, bombast	cowardice, modesty
8	bravura	1] A bold attempt or display of daring; dashing: A brilliant display of bravura and temperament at a critical point in the match. 2] In music, a brilliant passage that displays the performer's skill and technique.	ostentatious, showy	–
9	brawl	A noisy quarrel or fight: A drunken brawl.	affray, altercation, fracas, ruckus, wrangle, scrap	concord, peace, union
10	breakthrough	A major advance in knowledge or negotiations: then the breakthrough came with Einstein's Theory of Relativity.	discovery, insight	–
11	broach	1] To mention or suggest for the first time: He finally broached the subject of marriage. 2] To pierce, so as to withdraw a liquid: to broach a cask of wine.	address, initiate	–
12	brook	Tolerate, allow.: He is too authoritarian in his ways to brook any interference in his plans.	bear, stomach, tolerate	–
13	brusque*	Rough and abrupt in manner; blunt: The doctor is a kindly man but brusque.	curt, terse, laconic, uncivil	expansive, talkative, warm, ingratiating
14	bucolic	Rustic; of country life and farming: In his Wessex novels, Thomas Hardy depicts scenes of bucolic simplicity and charm.	loutish, pastoral, provincial	cultured, refined, polite
15	bug	To annoy, bother, or anger: I have been seeing you sit at the same place every day for the past one week, doing nothing. What is bugging you?	badger, beleaguer	–
16	bungle	The thief bungled and set off the alarm while trying to open the safe.	blunder	–
17	buoyancy	Highness of spirits; cheerfulness: his buoyancy at finding a new job.	vivacity, hopefulness, jubilation	dejection, depression
18	bumptious	Disagreeably conceited or self-important: The bumptious customs officials.	arrogant, brash, conceited, cocky	humble, tentative, timid, uncertain

19	burgeon*	To grow or develop rapidly; proliferate; flourish: a burgeoning manufacturing industry .	flourish, thrive	shrivel, wither
20	burnish*	To polish by rubbing; make or become shiny or lustrous: to burnish metal: The burnished shield shimmered in the sunlight . A lustrous or polished surface.	shine buff, glaze, gloss, luster, sheen	dull, tarnish
21	bustle	Excited activity; noisy stir: the bustle of a crowded market .	fuss, flutter, scurry, commotion, flurry, haste	relax, inertia
22	buttress*	Something that strengthens, defends, or upholds: a buttress of world peace .	reinforce, strengthen, brace, prop	undermine, weaken
23	cabal	1] A number of persons secretly united in a plot or plan, especially one to overthrow a ruler. 2] An intrigue or plot by such a group.	1] junta, gang 2] scheme, conspiracy, plan, machination	—
24	cache	1] To conceal or store in a secret place: My grandfather cached silver dollars in an old trunk . 2] Save up as for future use. A hidden storage space (for money or provisions or weapons). Spelling tip : It's dangerous to turn cache to cash . Watch the spelling of the two words that are pronounced alike but have different meanings.	accrue, amalgamate hoard, stash	1] expose 2] disperse, spend
25	cacophony*	Disagreeable or discordant sound: the cacophony of a flock of crows .	discord, dissonance, noise, clamor, hubbub, racket, uproar	harmony

Wordlist 8

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	cadence	1] Rhythmic or measured flow or beat.: He tapped his feet in tune with the cadence of the music. 2] Modulation, as of the voice: intonation. 3] The falling inflection of the voice, as at the end of a sentence. 4] A melodic, harmonic, or rhythmic formula ending part of a piece of music.	inflection, modulation, swing, tempo	—
2	cahoots	Questionable or illegal collaboration. In cahoots with a dishonest politician.	collusion, connivance	—
3	caitiff	A mean, evil or cowardly person.	dastard, knave corrupt, degenerate, nefarious	hero
4	cajole	To coax with flattery: She begged and cajoled her parents until they consented to let her go to the party.	beguile, coax, inveigle, palaver	bully, force
5	callow	Inexperienced: immature. A callow youth is an immature or inexperienced one.	green, naive, immature, juvenile, puerile, unsophisticated	adult, experienced, mature, sophisticated
6	caper	1] Wild foolish action or prank 2] A crime or illegal activity.	escapade, gag, prank	—
7	capitulate	To surrender, often on stipulated terms: The enemy capitulated after being promised fair treatment.	buckle, cede, yield, give up, give in, succumb, surrender	hold out, resist
8	capricious*	Resulting from caprice: The actions of diplomats must never be capricious.	arbitrary, impulsive, whimsical, fickle, fanciful	thoughtful, reasoned, careful, deliberate
9	carte blanche	Unrestricted authority: They gave him carte blanche to print controversial views in the newspaper.	—	—
10	castigate*	To censure severely or unremittingly: She endlessly castigated her husband over every small failing.	berate, rebuke, reprimand	commend, laud, praise
11	categorical	Definite: unambiguously explicit and direct. his categorical denial of the charges.	absolute, unequivocal, unreserved, positive, complete, total	partial, tentative, limited, qualified
12	catharsis	A purifying or purging of pity, terror, or other emotions, through witnessing a work of art such as tragic drama.	purgation	—
13	catholic	1] Broad-minded or liberal: a catholic respect for different customs. 2] Broad or universal in scope: a grasp of human knowledge that is catholic. 3] a member of a Christian church.	1] tolerant, generous, cosmopolitan. 2] general, comprehensive, all-embracing.	1] provincial, restricted 2] narrow, limited
14	caustic*	Extremely hostile or biting: Ignore the caustic slurs of your enemy.	1] burning, corrosive. 2] sarcastic, acerbic, venomous, satiric, scathing, trenchant	1] mild, soothing 2] admiring, flattering, approving
15	cavil	To find fault with or raise trivial objections to: He caviled about every departure from the letter of the law. A severe objection to minor failings: His cavils over procedure prevented them from coping with the emergency.	carp, quibble, squabble, grouse, censure	agree, concur, compliment

16	chagrin	1] A feeling of annoyance or embarrassment caused by failure, disappointment, etc.: the chagrin she felt when publicly insulted by her husband. 2] To annoy or embarrass. The student was chagrined at failing the exam.	dismay, distress, humiliation, mortification, disconcert	pride, delight
17	charlatan*	A person who claims to have skill and knowledge he does not possess: A medical charlatan can endanger your life.	fake, quack, imposter, fraud, rogue	—
18	cheeseparing	Miserly, stingy. Something of little or no value; Stinginess; parsimony.	penny-pinching	lavish, prodigal, profligate
19	chimera	Wild or impossible idea or fancy.	delusion, fantasy, phantom	reality, truth
20	chide	To scold: to chide a child for being lazy.	rebuke, reprimand, criticise, upbraid	praise, commend, compliment, applaud
21	choleric	Often angry.: His choleric bouts often kept his sons away.	hot tempered, irritable, nettled, grouchy	cheerful, pleasant
22	churlish	Rude and ill-tempered: a churlish brute who muttered menacingly when asked to move.	surly, boorish, sullen, insolent	polite, civil courteous, well-mannered
23	chutzpah	Tremendous self-confidence; barefaced effrontery; shameless audacity	audacity, cheek, nerve	diffidence, humility, timidity
24	circumlocution	Indirect or roundabout expression involving the use of more words than necessary: 'Refrain from perambulating on the growing green carpet' is a circumlocation for 'Don't walk on the grass'.	wordiness, verbosity, pleonasm, periphrasis, tautology	brevity, conciseness, terseness
25	clairvoyant	Having alleged unnatural powers to see or know things not present to the senses.	psychic, telepathic, medium, spiritualist	—

Wordlist 9

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	coalesce	To grow or come together into one: A number of small businesses coalesced into a large corporation.	fuse, blend, unite, amalgamate, merge	fragment, split, diffuse, disperse
2	cogent*	Appealing to the mind so as to influence it powerfully: a cogent argument for calling a cease-fire.	forceful, convincing, persuasive, potent, influential	weak, ineffectual, ineffective
3	cogitate	Consider carefully and deeply; reflect upon; turn over in one's mind	contemplate, meditate, deliberate	ignore
4	cognizant	Having knowledge, especially special or certain knowledge as from first-hand sources (used with of): Although cognizant of his own weaknesses, he was sure he could do the job.	aware, informed, conscious	unaware, ignorant, oblivious
5	cohere	1] To stick or hold firmly together: The grains of damp salt cohered. 2] To be logically connected; be consistent, as the parts of a story.	cling, adhere, coalesce, consolidate	separate
6	coincident	1] Occurring at exactly the same time: It was coincident that he arrived at the same time as she did. 2] In exact agreement; harmonious: Her tastes were coincident with her husband's.	1] concurring, parallel, simultaneous, 2] coinciding, corresponding, indistinguishable, like	—
7	collate	1] To assemble pages of a manuscript, etc. in proper order: The secretary collated the loose sheets of the report and stapled each complete set. 2] To compare critically as writings or facts: Scholars collated all existing copies of the Shakespeare Folio.	adduce, consolidate	disorganise
8	colossal	1] Of immense size: a colossal skyscraper. 2] Informal: Beyond comprehension or credibility: colossal pride.	huge, gigantic, tremendous, titanic, vast, mammoth	tiny, minuscule, miniature, infinitesimal, miniaturised
9	comely	Of pleasing appearance; handsome; graceful: Barbara and Joe were a comely young couple.	attractive, pleasant, winsome	plain, repelling, awkward, homely
10	commensurate*	Corresponding in size or degree or extent	adequate, appropriate	disproportionate
11	commiserate	1] To feel or express pity for: Don't just commiserate, help the survivors. 2] To sympathize: He commiserated with the injured strikers.	sympathize, condole	—
12	complacent	Satisfied with oneself; smug: Early success made him complacent and, from then on he never tried to improve.	smug, unconcerned, self-assured	insecure, unsatisfied
13	complaisant*	Willing to please: He was lucky to find a complaisant housekeeper.	agreeable, conciliatory, yielding, compliant, obedient, deferential	antagonistic, difficult, surly
14	concomitant	Accompanying. The infirmities that are concomitants of old age.	ancillary, attendant, incidental	—
15	concord	Unity of feeling; agreement: The U.N. strives to achieve concord among nations.	accord, peace, harmony, rapport	discord, disharmony, conflict

16	condescend	1] To come down voluntarily to equal terms with inferiors: The prince often condescended to chat with his subjects. 2] To lower oneself to do something: Her boss would not even condescend to get his own coffee. 3] To act in a superior or patronizing way.	2] deign, stoop, concede, 3] patronise, look down on	—
17	confabulate	To talk together in an informal way; chat	confer, discourse, converse	—
18	confute	To prove (statement, person) wrong. He confuted Mark's statement by reading out figures from the last audit report.	negate, refute, contradict, repudiate	affirm, verify
19	congeal	To change from a fluid to a solid condition: The custard congealed after being refrigerated.	harden, set, solidify	melt, soften, liquefy
20	congenial	1] Having similar character, nature, or tastes: a congenial group of friends. 2] Suited to one's needs or disposition: She enjoyed her job because of the congenial surroundings.	1] kindred, sympathetic, 2] agreeable, likable	1] dissimilar, unsympathetic. 2] disagreeable, repugnant, undesirable
21	conjecture	Guess: His conjecture that Alice would have joined the excursion party came true ... Under the circumstances, the army could only conjecture as to what the militants would do.	hypothesize, speculate, supposition	prove, certainty, fact
22	consecrate	1] To cause to be revered, honored, or treated as sacred. King Edward consecrated the original church here, in 1065. 2] To devote entirely; dedicated. I have consecrated my life to art.	1] bless, sanctify 2] devote, commit	desecrate
23	consort	1] A spouse, companion, or escort: Prince Albert was Queen Victoria's consort. 2] To keep company: He was accused of consorting with known criminals.	associate, fraternize, affiliate, associate, mate	avoid, part company, estrangle, foe, rival
24	construe	To interpret: They construed his silence as consent.	understand, explain.	obscure, confuse
25	contingent	Dependent upon an uncertain event, condition, or outcome: An increase in your allowance is contingent upon your grades.	fortuitous, probable	certain, predictable

Wordlist 10

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	contentious*	Always ready to argue; quarrelsome. We didn't quite bargain for contentious neighbours.	bellicose, combative, martial, litigious	calm, peaceful, passive
2	contrite*	Deeply and humbly sorry for one's sin or sins; penitent: Reformed and contrite, he begged forgiveness.	apologetic, chastened, penitent	recalcitrant, unrepentant
3	contumacy	Obstinate resistance, stubborn disobedience.	defiance, insubordination, rebelliousness, noncompliance	deference, submission
4	contumely	Abusive language or treatment; scornful insult. If Europeans face this kind of contumely in that small country, the Asians fare no better.	insult, abuse, vilification, invective	compliment, credit
5	convalescence	A gradual recovery after the termination of an illness or after surgery, or the period of such a recovery: The heart operation was successful, but complications prolonged his convalescence.	recovery, recuperation	—
6	convivial	Characterised by good fellowship; a convivial college reunion.	jovial, sociable, companionable, merry	unfriendly, cold, stiff, gloomy
7	copious	Plentiful; consisting of a large quantity or rich assortment	abundant, bountiful, lavish	meager, insufficient, minimal, spare
8	cornucopia	A symbol of abundance, represented as a curved horn overflowing with fruits, vegetables, grains, etc.	horn of plenty	dearth, paucity, scarcity
9	corporal	Of the human body. Corporal punishment in school is now banned by law. 'Corporal' is different from 'corporeal' which means of material nature, perceptible by the senses, as opposed to spiritual: An ascetic is concerned very little with corporeal affairs.	anatomical, physical, tangible	cerebral, intangible, mental, spiritual
10	corroborate*	To confirm: Eyewitness testimony corroborated the circumstantial evidence.	confirm, verify, substantiate, support	disprove, contradict, controvert
11	covenant	An agreement entered into by two or more persons or parties: a covenant among neighboring powers to keep peace.	pact, treaty, concordat, agree, contract	break off, disagree, renege
12	covet	To desire eagerly; long for: Many people coveted invitations to the party.	desire, crave, yearn, lust	renounce, reject, detest, content
13	crass	Grossly vulgar or stupid: She always makes crass remarks about the cost of things;	crude, ignorant, unmannerly	kind, nice, refined, sensitive
14	credible	1] Capable of being delivered: He told a credible story to explain his delay. 2] Worthy of confidence; reliable: a credible witness. Usage: Be careful not to confuse 'credible' with 'creditable' and 'credulous'. 'Creditable' means deserving credit or esteem; 'credulous' means apt to believe anything without questioning. Both 'credible' and 'creditable' apply to people and statements; but 'credulous' applies only to people.	believable, colorable, conceivable, conclusive, creditable, dependable, reliable, trustworthy, valid	doubtful, implausible, impossible, incredible, unbelievable, unlikely
15	credo	A set of beliefs; creed: the credo of a socialist.	doctrine, tenets, principles	disbelief, unbelief

16	crotchet	An odd or perverse notion or whim: One of the old man's crotchets was going to bed with all his clothes on.	eccentricity, quirk, vagary, caprice	regularity, normality, norm
17	culpable*	Deserving blame or censure: a nurse guilty of culpable neglect.	blameworthy, reproachable, censurable, reprehensible	blameless, guiltless, innocent, faultless
18	cynosure	Centre of attraction. At the Navy Ball, She was the cynosure of all eyes.	star, focal point, limelight	nobody, unknown
19	daunt*	To dishearten, frighten, or discourage: Failure did not daunt him.	intimidate, cow, dismay, abash	encourage, hearten, embolden
20	dawdle	To waste time in slow trifling: Hurry up, don't dawdle.	idle, dally, loiter, fiddle	hurry, rush, hasten
21	debauch	1] To corrupt in morals or principles: debauched by evil associates. 2] To overindulge one's sensual appetites. An act or period of gross sensual indulgence or riotous living: a week's debauch.	1] seduce, degrade 2] dissipate, carouse, orgy, carousal	1] purify, uplift 2] abstain self denial, continence, temperance
22	debilitate	To make feeble or languid: a body debilitated by a lingering illness; a hot, humid, debilitating climate.	weaken, enfeeble, enervate	strengthen, invigorate, enliven
23	debrief	To receive information from (a pilot emissary, intelligence agent, etc.) concerning flight or mission just completed and, often, to instruct as to restrictions in making the information public.	disclose, divulge, apprise	conceal, hide, hold back
24	decadence	A process or period of deterioration or decline, as in art or morals: the decadence of the Roman Empire in its last years.	decay, degeneration, wane, retrogression.	rise, flowering, blossoming, progress
25	decimate*	To destroy or kill a large proportion of: Disease decimated their ranks. Etym: 'Decimate' derives from the Latin 'decimare', meaning to take a part from. Hence, 'decimate' came to indicate the killing of one out of every ten of a given group. Now it points to an event of more disastrous reduction.	massacre, slaughter, exterminate, ambush	construct, preserve, create, fix, restore, build

Wordlist 11

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	decorous*	Proper and correct in a restrained or formal way: the decorous behavior of Sunday churchgoers.	seemly, conventional, demure	unconventional, unorthodox
2	defamation	Slandorous abuse of the character or reputation of an individual or group: The politician sued the magazine for defamation of character.	slander, libel, vilification, disparagement, aspersion, calumny	laudation, puffery, adulation, compliments, flattery
3	delineation	Pictorial or verbal portrayal: delineation of a face; delineation of character.	depiction, representation	—
4	demagogue	A leader who influences the populace by appealing to prejudices and passion: Hitler was a demagogue.	haranguer, rabble-rouse, agitator	pacifier, peacemaker
5	demur	To offer objections; to take exception: The others agreed, but Jim demurred. Spelling Tip: Do not confuse this word with 'demure' (di-myoor'), meaning prim or sedate.	dissent, object, hedge	agree, consent, comply, concur
6	denotation	The literal meaning of a word, as distinguished from its connotation (what it suggests): The denotation of "a blonde" is "a girl with golden hair."	meaning, designation	—
7	denouement	Final outcome of a story or play; a French word borrowed by English.	cessation, closure, completion	beginning, opening, commence
8	depravity	Wickedness or sexual immorality: Nero's depravity.	sinfulness, vice	purity, chastity, virtue
9	derelict	1] Neglectful; remiss: The filthy house proved she was derelict in performing household chores. 2] A social outcast, as a tramp or vagrant.	negligent, bum, wastrel, panhandler, wino	responsible, dutiful, solid citizen
10	deride*	To treat scornfully, ridicule; He derided the idea that poverty could be eliminated simply by handing out money to the poor.	make fun of, scorn, mock	appreciate, respect, admire, praise
11	desecrate	To treat sacrilegiously something held sacred: to desecrate the shrine by herding goats into it.	profane, defile, sully	revere, consecrate, hallow
12	despicable	Contemptible, vile: despicable men who profit by human suffering.	mean, wicked, awful	admirable, wonderful
13	desultory*	Passing abruptly from one thing to another; disconnected: a desultory conversation.	haphazard, stray, unguided	focused, guided, thorough
14	devious	1] Winding or leading away from the regular, straight, or direct course: a devious country lane that led nowhere. 2] Straying from the proper or accepted way: devious behavior.	1] roundabout, rambling, indirect 2] untrustworthy, dishonest, erring	1] straight direct, simple 2] honest, trustworthy, correct
15	diaphanous	So thin in substance that light shows through: a diaphanous curtain.	translucent, transparent, sheer, gauzy, gossamer	opaque, thick, dense
16	diatribe*	A bitter or malicious speech or piece of writing, usually critical and often long: Castro's frequent diatribes against the U.S.	harangue, tirade, vilification	laudation, puffery, adulation
17	didactic	1] Intended to instruct or guide: a didactic essay. 2] Inclined to teach or moralise: a very stuffy person whose most casual conversation revealed his didactic nature.	1] instructive, expository, information 2] pedantic, moralistic, pedagogic	1] uneducational, un-instructional 2] unethical, unrighteous

18	diffidence*	Lack of confidence in oneself; timidity or shyness: the diffidence of the trainee in addressing the company president.	hesitation, reluctant, shyness, timidity	self-confidence, self-assurance, boldness, forwardness
19	diffuse*	1] To spread about in all directions: heat from the fireplace diffused throughout the room. 2] Characterised by the excessive use of words: a diffuse prose style.	1] circulate, permeate, dispersed, scattered, widespread. 2] verbose, wordy, long-winded	1] compress, confined, restricted 2] brief, terse, abridged, succinct, attached
20	discrete*	Disconnected from others; distinct or separate: A molecule is composed of discrete atoms.	disjoined, divided, isolate, separate, severed, unaccompanied, unconnected	connected, coupled, fastened, linked, united
21	disheveled	Untidy or unkempt: After traveling by train for three days, he looked somewhat disheveled.	tousled, rumpled, slovenly, sloppy	neat, tidy, spruce, well-groomed
22	disinterested*	Impartial and objective; without selfish motives: Judges must make disinterested decisions. Usage: 'disinterested' is often wrongly used as a synonym for 'uninterested'. However, careful speakers will use it more precisely to mean 'impartial and unbiased.'	impartial, unbiased, unprejudiced, impersonal, fair	biased, prejudiced, unjust, partial, inequitable
23	dissemble*	1] To cover up one's true feelings or intentions by pretending: She dissembled her jealousy with a bright smile. 2] To pretend: Hamlet dissembled madness to deceive the king.	1] camouflage, conceal, disguise. 2] feign, counterfeit, simulate	1] reveal, expose, show, manifest
24	disseminate*	To spread far and wide, as if sowing seeds: Television and radio disseminate ideas and information.	broadcast, circulate, propagate	conceal, repress, suppress, hide
25	dissipate	1] To break up and scatter away: With daylight, their fears dissipated. 2] To spend wastefully: Don't dissipate your strength on useless projects. 3] To over-indulge in destructive pleasures: dissipating recklessly until he became an alcoholic.	1] disperse, dispel. 2] squander	conserve, collect, hoard, save

Wordlist 12

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	dolorous	Mournful; sad: the dolorous expression of a basset hound.	melancholy, gloomy, woebegone	happy, cheerful, merry
2	double entendre	A term with two meanings, especially when one of them has risque or indecorous connotation.	double meaning, dubiety	explicitness, lucidity, unambiguity
3	dregs	1] The sediment of liquids, especially of beverages: the dregs of wine. 2] The poorest or least desirable part: the dregs of society.	1] refuse, husk, crust 2] scrapings, scum, rejects	1] fruitful
4	duress	Coercion or compulsion by means of force or threats: a confession extracted under duress.	constraint, pressure	freedom, liberty, free will
5	ebullient*	Bubbling over with enthusiasm or excitement: the ebullient performance of Carol Chanting.	exuberant, high-spirited, vivacious	unenthusiastic, blase, bored
6	eclectic*	1] Selecting and using what seems best from various sources, systems, or schools of thought. 2] Broad in acceptance of ideas or approval from other sources: An eclectic mixture of both western and Asian thought.	1] fastidious, selective, particular 2] open-minded, liberal, tolerant	1] unfussy undemanding, indiscriminating, 2] limited, narrow, parochial
7	efface	1] To rub out, as written characters: a tombstone inscription effaced by time. 2] To destroy or get rid of, as a memory 3] To make oneself inconspicuous or insignificant: trying to efface herself after making a disastrous social blunder.	1] erase, cancel, delete. 2] blot out, obliterate	1] include, record, 2] establish, uphold, create
8	effete	1] Having lost strength, vitality, creativity, etc.: effete noblemen unable to perform any useful functions in society. 2] Incapable of further production; barren, as an animal, plant or the soil.	1] worn out, exhausted, spent 2] unfruitful, sterile, unprolific	1] lively, tireless, vigorous, vital 2] fecund, productive, prolific
9	efficacious*	Producing the desired result; effective.	efficient, productive, capable	futile, inadequate, ineffective, ineffectual
10	effrontery*	Shameless or insolent boldness: The dinner guest had the effrontery to criticise everything about the meal.	audacity, impudence, nerve, gall	courtesy, deference, respect, humbleness
11	effulgent	Shining brilliantly: the effulgent beauty of her smile.	radiant, glowing, dazzling	dark, dim, dull, gloomy, murky
12	effusive	Overflowing with sentiment or enthusiasm: He was embarrassed by her effusive introduction.	gushing, profuse, exuberant	restrained, cold, reserved
13	egoism	1] Great concern for one's own welfare and interests; selfishness: the egoism of a person who demands the largest share for himself. 2] Self-conceit; egotism. Usage: Although 'egoism' and 'egotism' are sometimes used interchangeably, 'egoism' usually refers to a person's tendency to view things as they bear upon himself. 'Egotism' is more commonly used of these two words, as 'egoism' is now largely a philosophical term.	self-absorption, self-regard	altruism, selfabnegation, humility
14	egregious	Conspicuously bad, as in taste or quality: failing to greet one's guests is an egregious social blunder. Etym: Egregious comes from the Latin words 'e'(out) and 'greg', gregis (herd), meaning out of the herd or outstanding.	flagrant, glaring, intolerable, shocking	conventional, moderate, normal, ordinary, trivial

15	elan	Spirited self-assurance; verve, dash: it was his revolutionary elan, his ruthless use of organised force, that made history.	fervor, zeal, zest	–
16	elegiac*	1] Expressing sorrow or regret, especially for something in the past: elegiac laments about one's lost, idyllic childhood. 2] Of or having to do with meditative poems or musical works of lamentation: elegiac verse.	nostalgic, poignant, melancholy	joyful, happy, jubilant
17	elicit*	To draw out or bring forth: to elicit the truth. Usage: Although they are pronounced alike, 'elicit' and 'illicit' have completely different meanings. Illicit is an adjective meaning unlawful or not permitted: The district attorney elicited information about the illicit selling of narcotics.	extract, obtain, wrest, wring	suppress, cover, hide, forestall, stem
18	emaciated	Very thin or wasted away, as from illness or poor nutrition.	gaunt, skinny, skeletal	plump, fat, obese
19	emasculate	Weaken or impoverish. The Moghul empire in the post – Aurangzeb period was emasculated by the regular depredations carried out by the Marathas.	cripple, debilitate, deprive,	energize, strengthen, vitalize
20	embellish*	1] To beautify by adding ornamental features; decorate: to embellish a room with fine paintings. 2] To heighten the interest of a story by adding extra or fanciful details: He embellished the description of the party by relating antics of the guests	1] adorn, garnish. 2] enliven	1] disfigure, deface, mar, spoil, strip
21	embezzle	To take illegally for one's own use another person's money, securities, etc.: It was discovered that the bank clerk had embezzled thousands of dollars.	steal, appropriate	bequeath, bestow, give, return
22	emulation*	Desire or ambition to equal or surpass. Emulation is not same as imitation which is plain copying or impersonating or mimicing.	drive, zeal, fervor, striving	apathy, sloth, laziness
23	encomium	A formal expression of praise: political encomiums exchanged by members of the party during an election year.	eulogy, panegyric	vilification, attack, disparagement
24	endemic*	Commonly found in a specified area or people: ... the rich variety of flora and fauna endemic to the Seychelles. (N.B.): Do not confuse this word with 'epidemic' (meaning outbreak of a disease, e.g., plague spreading through a community).	indigenous, native, original, primary, primeval	alien, foreign, immigrant, newcomer
25	enervate*	To sap the strength or vitality of: The long walk in the hot sun enervated him.	enfeeble, weaken, drain	energize, invigorate, strengthen

Wordlist 13

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	engender*	To give rise to; produce: The highhanded methods of the captain engendered a sense of insecurity in his men.	incite, induce, produce, propagate, provoke, rouse, stimulate,	destroy, finish, halt, stop
2	enigma*	A baffling or ambiguous saying; also, anything that puzzles or baffles: The Delphic oracle spoke in enigmas; Teenagers are enigmas to their parents.	bewilderment, puzzle, ambiguous	explicitness, lucidity, unambiguity
3	ennui	Weary listlessness or discontent; boredom: Retired people without outside interests may suffer ennui.	weariness, indifference, lethargy	enthusiasm, activity, interest
4	ephemeral*	Lasting but a short time; transitory: Ephemeral summer flowers wilt a few hours after blooming.	fleeting, evanescent, short-lived	permanent, enduring, imperishable
5	epicure	A person given to luxurious living and discriminating gratification of the senses; especially, a fastidious devotee of good food and drink: The French chef prepared a meal good enough for an epicure.	gourmet, sybarite, gastronome	—
6	equivocal*	Open to two or more interpretations and often intended to mislead	ambiguous, ambivalent, dubious, evasive	certain, clear, definite, obvious
7	errant	1] Roving or wandering, especially in search of adventure: a knight errant. 2] Straying from the proper course of conduct: an errant son who tried hard to reform.	1] roaming, traveling. 2] wayward, erring	natural, standard, typical
8	ersatz	Substitute, and usually inferior: Bitter ersatz coffee was all we had during World War II.	imitation, pretended, bogus, counterfeit	real, genuine
9	erudite*	Very learned; scholarly: an erudite professor.	cultured	illiterate, unlettered
10	eschew	To shun, as something unworthy or injurious: The minister told him to eschew going to bars.	avoid	embrace, seek out
11	esoteric*	Understood by only a few specially instructed or initiated persons, or lying beyond ordinary comprehension: an esoteric treatise on nuclear propulsion.	abstruse, arcane, recondite	exoteric, simple, comprehensible
12	espousal*	1] Adoption or support, as of a cause: their enthusiastic espousal of civil rights. 2] An engagement: the espousal of his sister to his friend.	1] championing, advocacy, defense. 2] betrothal	1] disapproval, non-involvement 2] disengagement
13	eulogy*	A spoken or written piece of high praise, especially when formal and delivered publicly: a eulogy of the former President, delivered in the Senate.	encomium, panegyric, laudation	condemnation, damning, defamation, vilification
14	euphonious	Agreeable, pleasant, or sweet in sound: the euphonious speech of a Southern belle. Etym: Euphonious goes back to Greek roots: 'eu'-(good) + 'phone' (sound)	melodious, mellifluous, dulcet	cacophonous, discordant, harsh
15	evince	To show openly or clearly: Her flair for color and form first evinced itself in grade-school drawings.	display, manifest, reveal	conceal, hide, camouflage
16	exasperate	To annoy or irritate to the point of losing patience: Her constant whining and complaining finally exasperated everyone.	aggravate, infuriate, provoke, outrage	please, soothe, mollify

17	excoriate	1] To denounce harshly. 2] scrape	1] chastise, condemn, denounce 2] scratch, peel	2] compliment, congratulate, laud, praise
18	excruciating	Causing or inflicting intense pain: an excruciating toothache.	agonizing, tormenting	painless
19	exonerate	To free from blame or accusation: The accused was exonerated from any connection with the crime.	absolve, acquit, vindicate	condemn, convict, find guilty, incriminate
20	exotic	1] Belonging by nature or origin to another part of the world; not native: an exotic plant. 2] Strangely different and fascinating: an exotic custom; an exotic woman.	1] foreign, extraneous, extrinsic 2] extraordinary, unusual, enticing	1] native, indigenous. 2] commonplace, ordinary, plain
21	expedite	To speed up the process or progress of; facilitate: to expedite an application for a government job.	quicken, hurry, further, advance	hold up, procrastinate, delay
22	expunge	To strike out something written; delete; erase: to expunge a word from a sentence.	eradicate, exclude, discard	restore, introduce
23	extricate	To free from something that entangles, hinders, or causes difficulties: The lion extricated itself from the net.	disentangle, liberate, loose	entangle, enmesh, entrap
24	exude	To discharge something as through pores, gashes, etc.: sweat exuding from his face; young man who exuded confidence.	excrete, emit, give off, radiate	conceal, hide
25	exult	To rejoice greatly; be jubilant: They exulted in the afterglow of their victory in the crucial match.	delighted, elated, overjoyed	bemoan, lament, mourn

Wordlist 14

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	facile	1] Not hard to do or achieve, easy: lazy people seek facile tasks. 2] Moving, acting or working easily or rapidly: he writes in a facile style. He has a facile explanation for everything. 3] Of easy manners or temper; her facile nature adapted itself to any group of people without effort.	1] ready, expert, dextrous. 2] genteel, agreeable, yielding	1] laborious, complicated 2] inept
2	factitious	Not natural or genuine or spontaneous; forced or artificial. The word differs in meaning from 'factions'.	bogus, counterfeit, ersatz, fabricated, faked	natural, authentic, genuine, real
3	fallible	Liable to err, to be misled, or to be wrong: Humans are fallible.	imperfect, errable, faulty	infallible, perfect, unerring
4	fastidious	Hard to please in matters of taste: a fastidious diner.	refined, particular	uncritical, easygoing
5	fatuous*	Foolish or idiotic in a self-satisfied way: the fatuous grins of the audience in a burlesque house.	silly, inane, vacant, stupid	brilliant, intelligent, smart, wise
6	faux pas	A French phrase that literally means a false step; a mistake or error, especially a breach of etiquette: He committed a faux pas at the dinner party by drinking from his finger bowl.	misconduct, bungle	—
7	fawn*	To act in an excessively friendly manner in order to win favour: courtiers who had once flattered and fawned on him ...	dance attendance, know tow, submit	despise, domineer, ignore, insult
8	fervent*	Very earnest and intense: a fervent prayer, a candidate's fervent supporters. Etym: 'Fervent', 'fervid', and 'fervor' come from the Latin word 'fevere', to 'boil', and imply the heat of strong feelings that are deeply stirred.	ardent, fervid, impassioned, passionate	apathetic, dispassionate, dispirited, indifferent, unenthusiastic, unexcited
9	fetid	having a foul odor, as of rot or decay: the fetid stagnant water.	stinking, rank, putrid, malodorous	fragrant, sweet, aromatic
10	fetter	1] A chain or other bond put about the ankles to restrain movement: a prisoner in fetters. 2] Anything checking freedom of movement or expression: the fetters of slavery.	1] shackle. 2] restraint. shackle, chain, bind, confine, hobble	free, liberate, unchain
11	fiasco	A complete or humiliating failure: The new Broadway play was a fiasco.	flop, bust, disaster	success, winner, hit
12	fidelity	1] Faithfulness; loyalty: a husband's fidelity. 2] Truthfulness; accuracy: the fidelity of sound reproduction on a recording.	1] trustworthiness, constancy, devotion. 2] exactness, precision, reliability	1] disloyalty, infidelity. 2] inaccuracy, distortion
13	finesse	1] Highly refined skill or technique: The pianist negotiated the tricky passage with finesse. 2] Artful strategy or tact: a skilled mediator who handled the negotiations with finesse.	1] adroitness, deftness, flair 2] craft, cunning, diplomacy	1] clumsiness, incompetence, ineptitude 2] maladroitness, tactlessness
14	finite	Having bounds or limits; not infinite: the finite human mind.	measurable, terminable, restricted	measureless, unlimited, unbounded

15	flaccid	Lacking firmness or elasticity; limp or flabby: flaccid muscles ; His leadership of the party is ineffective and flaccid.	weak, lax, drooping, incompetent	firm, effective, strong
16	flagrant	Openly disgraceful; shockingly bad: a flagrant breaking of the law.	glaring, gross, notorious, heinous, rank	mild, slight, venial
17	flamboyant	1] Extravagantly ornate; showy: Flamboyant hair styles prevailed during the reign of Louis XIV. 2] Brilliant in color; resplendent: a garden of flamboyant flowers.	1] overelaborate, ostentatious, florid, rococo. 2] showy, gorgeous, flaming	1] plain, simple, bare. 2] dull, dreary
18	florid*	1] having a ruddy color; flushed: a large, stout man with a florid face. 2] Ornate, especially to an excessive degree: prose written in a wordy and florid style.	1] high-colored, rubicund, red 2] flowery, embellished, flamboyant, fancy, elaborate	1] pale, ashen, pallid, anaemic, blood-less. 2] plain, unadorned, simple, classic
19	forfeit	Something taken away or given up as a penalty, or the giving up or loss of something as a penalty: the forfeit of his good name.	forfeiture, loss.	—
20	fortuitous	Occurring by chance rather than by design; accidental: an unexpected, fortuitous encounter.	chance, adventitious	designed, intended, planned, premeditated
21	foster*	1] To bring up a child: She lovingly fosters both children. 2] To promote the development or growth of, or to keep alive: Tutoring fostered his genius. The interview fostered his hopes of getting the job.	1] rear, raise, nurture. 2] advance, promote, sustain	discourage, destroy, ruin, kill
22	fractious	1] Apt to be unruly or rebellious: a fractious, spoiled child. 2] Easily annoyed or angered; cranky: a fractious old man.	1] wayward, disorderly 2] irritable, peevish, querulous, bad-tempered	1] obedient, docile 2] good-natured, amiable
23	frailty	1] The state or quality of being delicate and weak: the frailty of a porcelain vase; the frailty of an emaciated, tubercular old man. 2] A fault or moral weakness: Drinking too much is his great frailty.	1] fragile, dainty 2] fallibility, fault, feebleness, flaw	1] strength, toughness, sturdiness, resilience 2] vigor
24	fritter	To waste or squander little by little: to fritter away an inheritance.	lavish, trifle mispend, squander	accumulate, gather, save, hoard
25	frugality*	The quality of being economical; carefulness in using and spending.	thrift, economy	extravagance, wastefulness

Wordlist 15

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	furtive	1] Done in secret: She stole a furtive glance. 2] Sly: There was a furtive look about him that made me immediately suspicious.	1] stealthy, surreptitious, concealed. 2] evasive, shifty	1] open, apparent. 2] honest, forthright
2	garrulous*	1] Talking a great deal, especially about unimportant or boring things: a lonely, garrulous old man. 2] Rambling and wordy: a garrulous account of his vacation.	1] talkative, loquacious, chatty. 2] verbose, long-winded	1] laconic, unresponsive quiet. 2] terse, concise, succinct
3	gauche	Awkward, clumsy or inept, especially in social behaviour: She was frequently embarrassed by the gauche actions of her roommate. Etym: Gauche has been borrowed from the French word for 'left-handed'.	maladroit, boorish	adroit
4	generic	Having a wide, general application; not specific: mental illnesses grouped under the generic heading of 'psychoses'.	collective, comprehensive	particular, definite, explicit
5	genial	1] Smiling and pleasant; cheerful and friendly; kindly: she was glad to see us again and gave us a genial welcome. 2] Pleasantly warming, comforting: a genial climate.	amicable, cordial	hostile, ill-suited, incompatible, unfriendly
6	genteel	1] Belonging to or suited to polite society. 2] Polite well-bred fashionable; elegant. The genteelest dinner I've ever seen. 3] trying to be aristocratic; artificially polite or courteous: Her mannerisms were painfully genteel	refined	barbaric, illmannered, impolite, rude, unkind, unrefined
7	germane	Related to what is being discussed or considered; relevant: His comments are not germane to this argument.	pertinent, appropriate, relative, fitting, suitable, proper	irrelevant, alien, unsuitable, unrealted
8	glean	1] To gather the leavings from a field after the crop has been reaped: to glean wheat. 2] To collect facts, etc. by patient effort: He combined the files and gleaned some useful information.	1] harvest, pick, reap. 2] collect, gather, accumulate	disperse, dissemble, scatter
9	glut	1] To stuff full of food: She glutted herself with pie. 2] To supply with an excess of anything: to glut the market with stock.	1] gorge, satiate. 2] flood, deluge, swamp. oversupply, plethora, superabundance	starve, shortage, scarcity
10	gratuitous	1] Given or accepted without requirement of payment or return; gratis; free: a gratuitous ticket to a Broadway show. 2] Lacking cause or justification: a gratuitous snub.	1] charge-less, complimentary 2] uncalled-for, unwarranted, needless	based, founded, substantial, well-founded
11	gregarious*	1] Always associating with others. As in flocks, herds, or groups. 2] Enjoying or seeking the company of others: gregarious teenagers always with their friends.	sociable, friendly, chummy	antagonistic, cold, nasty, unfriendly
12	guile*	Treacherous, cunning, or crafty: a person who seemed honest but was really full of guile.	deceit, slyness, trickery	honesty, guilelessness, naivete
13	gullible*	Easily cheated or fooled: a gullible newcomer to the city.	unsophisticated, inexperienced	disbelieving, distrustful, sophisticated

14	hackneyed	Made commonplace and dull by too frequent use: a hackneyed story of boy meets girl . 'Haste makes waste' is a hackneyed expression.	trite, stereotyped, common	original, fresh, vivid
15	haggard	Having a worn or gaunt look, as from fatigue, worry, illness, hunger, etc.: haggard from anxiety and loss of sleep .	tried, weary, exhausted	fresh, rested
16	hallowed	1] Made holy; consecrated: to be buried in hallowed ground . 2] Honored and regarded as holy: hallowed saints .	1] sacred, sanctified, blessed. 2] venerated, revered, worshipped, holy	1] damned, disapproved, unholy 2] despised, detested, disdained,
17	hapless	Having no luck; unfortunate: a hapless child deserted by his parents .	unlucky, miserable, wretched	lucky, favored, fortunate
18	harangue*	Long, loud talk or speech. The word comes via Old French 'harangue', Latin 'haranga'. We had to listen to a long harangue about our own shortcomings .	sermon, lecture, allocution, disquisition	—
19	hedonism	1] The philosophical doctrine that pleasure is the only good and proper goal of moral endeavor. 2] The self-indulgent pursuit of pleasure: the hedonism of the idle rich .	epicureanism, debauchery, sensualism	temperance, abstemiousness, self-restraint
20	heresy*	1] A belief or opinion contrary to the accepted doctrine of a church, political organization, professional group, etc.: The liberal's ideas were heresy to the conservative wing of his party . 2] The holding of such a belief or opinion: to be guilty of heresy .	dissent, nonconformity, schism, apostasy, disbelief	belief, godliness, piety, compliance, concurrence
21	hoi polloi	An expression taken from the Greek, meaning the common people. It is usually used in a contemptuous way and it is preceded by a redundant the: a politician, who in private, always referred to voters as 'the hoi polloi' .	masses, herd, crowd, riffraff	elite, society
22	homogeneous*	All of the same or similar kind or nature	invariable, even, uniform	changing, erratic, inconsistent, inconstant, irregular
23	humane	Having or characterised by kindness, sympathy, tenderness, etc.: a humane social worker who cared about each individual client .	compassionate, benevolent, good	exciting, interesting, challenging
24	humdrum	Tedious and dull: a humdrum existence that nearly drove him mad .	uninteresting, boring, monotonous	—
25	iconoclast*	Characterised by overt contempt for conventional or cherished ideas, institutions, etc.: an iconoclastic writer who ridicules patriotism .	maverick, non-conformist, peacenik, protestor, radical	—

Wordlist 16

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	idiosyncrasy	A habit, mannerism, reaction, etc. that is peculiar to an individual; especially, an odd, atypical, or eccentric trait: an idiosyncrasy such as using a sundial instead of a clock.	quirk, peculiarity, eccentricity, abnormality	conventionality, normalcy, usualness
2	ignoramus	An ignorant person: He's such an ignoramus he doesn't even know that China is in Asia.	dolt, dunce, dope	genius, prodigy, scholar
3	imbue	1] To pervade or permeate, as with ideals, emotions, etc.: to be imbued with the spirit of democracy. 2] To saturate, as with color or moisture: to soak cloth in a dye until it is imbued with color.	1] impregnate, inculcate, inoculate. 2] lacquer, paint, immerse	drain, discolor
4	immanent	Remaining within; inherent. In theology: the noun immanence; the prevailing presence of God in His creation, as distinguished from transcendent: (N.B.) Do not confuse this word with 'imminent'.	implicit, inborn, inbred, inbuilt, indigenous	—
5	imminent	About to happen: said especially of danger or catastrophe: safety preparations against the imminent hurricane.	threatening, impending, coming, approaching	remote, distant, far-off
6	impassioned	Having or showing strong feeling; passionate, fiery, ardent: The General made an impassioned speech to his soldiers.	fervent, fervid, incensed, intense, passionate	dispassionate, dull, unenthusiastic, unexcited
7	impassive*	Not feeling or showing emotion: De Gaulle remained impassive in the midst of nationwide strikes.	unmoved, calm, dispassionate, unconcerned, insensitive	emotional, demonstrative, excitable, sensitive, overwrought
8	impeccable	Free from error, fault, or flaw: an impeccable dresser.	perfect, flawless, irreproachable, faultless	imperfect, defective, marred
9	impecunious	Poor: He didn't want an impecunious man for a son-in-law.	destitute, dirt poor, impoverished, penniless, penurious	prosperous, rich, wealthy
10	imperious	1] Characterised by arrogance and command: a petty official who tried to compensate for his lack of talent by an imperious manner. 2] Urgent, imperative: an imperious need.	1] dictatorial, overbearing, haughty, despotic. 2] necessary, critical	1] submissive, yielding, humble. 2] unnecessary, insignificant
11	impervious*	1] Incapable of being passed through, as by moisture or light rays: a coat impervious to rain. 2] Not open or receptive: a mind impervious to reason.	1] impenetrable, impermeable, impassable 2] unreceptive, unresponsive, unmovable	1] pervious, permeable, porous, penetrable 2] receptive, responsive
12	impetuous	1] Tending to act on sudden impulse and without forethought: an impetuous young man. 2] Resulting from sudden impulse: an impetuous decision. 3] Moving with violent force: an impetuous wind.	1] impulsive, reckless, rash, careless. 2] sudden, spontaneous, precipitate, headlong. 3] furious, rushing, wild, intense	cautious, wary, timid, deliberate
13	implacable*	That which cannot be appeased or pacified: an implacable enemy.	unrelenting, unforgiving, unappeaseable, relentless	placable, lenient, clement, yielding, forgiving

14	implicit*	1] Unreserved, absolute: implicit confidence . 2] Implied or understood, but not specifically expressed: implicit agreement .	1] complete, unquestioned 2] tacit, inferred	1] limited, partial, moderate. 2] expressed, spoken, written, formal
15	impromptu	Not planned ahead of time: unexpectedly besieged by reporters, he made an impromptu speech .	extemporaneous, spontaneous, off-the-cuff, extemporaneously, extempore	planned, scheduled, prepared, rehearsed
16	inane	Stupid, silly, or pointless: an inane remark .	senseless, foolish	sensible, meaningful
17	inchoate*	Not yet clearly or completely formed or organized; disordered: Each one of us has the prerogative of completing his inchoate and rudimentary nature .	nascent, preliminary, rudimentary, shapeless, unfinished	outlined, shaped, defined, polished, refined
18	inclement	1] Bad, rough or stormy (said of the weather): The outing was cancelled because of inclement weather . 2] Without mercy: a stiff sentence imposed by an inclement judge .	1] severe, rigorous 2] harsh, merciless	1] mild, fair 2] merciful, lenient
19	incongruous*	1] Not suitable, proper, or appropriate: He appeared at the formal dinner in an absurdly incongruous cowboy outfit . 2] Composed of elements or parts not properly belonging together: the incongruous combination of a formal gown and tennis shoes .	1] inappropriate, improper 2] inharmonious, incompatible, contradictory	1] apt, reasonable 2] harmonious, consistent
20	incredulous	Sceptical; not ready to believe: He stared at me incredulously when I broke the news .	dubious, hesitant, mistrustful, questioning	believing, trusting, unsuspecting
21	inculpate	Blame: He confessed to a plot to murder the broker... and inculpated the servant in the crime .	allege, indict, impeach, implicate	absolve, exculpate, exonerate
22	indigenous	Originating or occurring naturally in the place or country where found: Koala bears are indigenous to Australia .	native, aboriginal	alien, foreign, immigrant
23	indigent*	Having little or no money; poor: indigent families forced to go on relief .	needy, penniless, destitute	rich, wealthy, prosperous
24	indolent*	Averse to exertion or work: lazy: an indolent boy who lounged on the porch all day .	idle, inactive, sluggish	active, busy, energetic
25	inept	1] Not suitable or appropriate; out of place: an inept and highly tactless remark . 2] Clumsy incompetent: an inept cook .	1] ill-timed, inopportune 2] inefficient	1] proper, appropriate 2] capable, efficient, competent

Wordlist 17

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	innocuous*	1] Having no harmful qualities or effects: an innocuous garter snake . 2] Not likely to offend or arouse strong feelings: an innocuous speech .	1] harmless, safe 2] inoffensive, bland	1] harmful, dangerous 2] inflammatory, offensive
2	insinuate*	1] To suggest slyly or indirectly: insinuating that her behavior was in bad taste . 2] To introduce or work gradually in a subtle or indirect way: insinuating himself into his employer's favor .	1] hint, imply, infer 2] instill, implant	1] suppress, withhold, conceal 2] hasten, hurry
3	insipid*	1] Lacking spirit, vivacity, and interest: an insipid recital . 2] Lacking flavor or savor: an insipid meal .	1] dull, spiritless, uninteresting. 2] tasteless, bland, flat	interesting, lively, spirited.
4	intractable*	Stubborn and uncooperative; difficult to control: an intractable child who responds to every request by howling "No"! .	unmalleable, disobedient, strongwilled, unruly	tractable, docile, submissive
5	intransigent*	Refusing to compromise: The intransigent candidate refused to deviate from his policy even though no one else agreed with him .	uncompromising, unbending, adamant, irreconcilable, die-hard.	reasonable, cooperative, flexible
6	intrepid	Unusually brave; fearless: an intrepid mountain climber attempting a peak that no one else had dared to climb .	dauntless, heroic	cowardly, craven, yellow
7	inveigle	To coax or entice by guile or flattery: If we try hard we might inveigle mother into baking us a cake .	cajole, beguile	deter, repel, discourage, dissuade
8	irascible*	Easily provoked to anger: The nurse complained about her irascible and uncooperative patients .	irritable, quick-tempered	calm, content, tranquil, relaxed
9	jaded	Dulled or wearied, as from having too much, eating too much, drinking too much, etc.	satiated, bored, surfeited	excited, keen, titillated
10	jubilant	Rejoicing; exultation: The jubilation of a candidate's supporters after he was elected .	delight, elation	unhappiness, depression
11	juggernaut	1] Anything that exacts blind devotion or terrible sacrifice. 2] Any terrible irresistible force. (The word has been derived from the car or rath of the Hindu God Vishnu whose idol, it was formerly believed, so excited his worshippers when it was hauled along during religious rites that they threw themselves under its wheels and were crushed.)	—	—
12	kaleidoscopic	Constantly and swiftly changing like the patterns in a kaleidoscope: her kaleidoscopic moods .	shifting, fluid	steady, constant
13	labyrinthine	Pertaining to a maze, or as intricate and perplexing as a maze: a labyrinthine geometry problem .	baffling, complicated	simple, uncomplicated
14	lackadaisical	Languid; listless: Everyone moves in a lackadaisical manner in very hot weather . Also, disinterested; perfunctory (indifference): His performance in school has been lackadaisical .	enervated, sluggish, half-hearted	energetic, peppy, animated
15	laconic*	Brief and concise: a laconic summary (of a style of writing); a laconic man (of a person) .	terse, pithy, compact	wordy, verbose, redundant

16	laissez faire	Free enterprise; deregulation. Let (people) do (as they please); the policy or practice of letting people act without interference or direction; non-interference; specifically, the policy of letting the owners of industry and business fix the rules of business without government regulation or control on the factors of production working of the market.	enterprise, individualism	—
17	languid	Lacking energy or spirit: She extended her hand in a languid gesture of welcome. Leisurely, unhurried.	weak, listless	energetic
18	lascivious	Having or arousing sexual desires: The play was denounced as being lewd and lascivious.	lustful, pornographic, indecent	chaste, innocent
19	lassitude*	A state of weariness or fatigue: A deep lassitude overcame her; and she slept.	languor, disinclination to exert oneself	enthralment, excitement, stimulation
20	latent*	Existent but not developed or manifest: the latent force of an atom bomb.	dormant, potential, abeyant, hidden	active, alert
21	laudable*	Deserving praise: working for underprivileged children is a laudable occupation.	commendable, admirable, praiseworthy	contemptible, detestable, despicable, discreditable, disgraceful
22	leit motif	A recurrent theme. In music: A theme that represents a certain person, event, emotion, or idea throughout an opera, musical, etc.: the leitmotif of a character in a Wagnerian opera.	—	—
23	lewd	1] Characterised by lust or debauchery: a lewd, evil-minded man. 2] Obscene: a lewd joke.	lustful, lecherous, lascivious, decent, bawdy	pure, strait-laced, decent, refined
24	limbo	An intermediate state/condition of awaiting a decision. A condition of being forgotten and unwanted: He shouldn't have protested the Board's decision, since it didn't affect him any way personally; predictably, he will be dropped from the team to tour Australia and, thereafter, he will be in limbo.	uncertainty, indefiniteness,	explicitness, lucidity, certainty
25	limpid	1] Not cloudy: a limpid pool of water. 2] Clear and simple, as in style: a writer of limpid verse.	1] transparent 2] lucid, logical	1] foggy 2] vague

Wordlist 18

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	loath	Very reluctant; unwilling: Many people are loath to get up early in the morning.	averse, disinclined	willing, eager
2	loathe	To feel great hatred or disgust for: I loathe slimy snakes!	detest, abhor, abominate	like, love, admire
3	loquacious*	Very talkative: a loquacious woman who chatters almost constantly.	garrulous, gabby	silent, taciturn
4	lurid	1] Vivid or glowing in color. 2] Of an unnatural glare. 3] Sensational: a magazine with lurid reports of sex and murder. 4] Showy, gaudy	1] bleached 3] sensational, sensuous, erotic	—
5	lugubrious	Very sad or mournful, especially in a ludicrous manner: the lugubrious expression of a clown who has just taken a pratfall.	melancholy, somber, sorrowful, doleful	elated, euphoric, exhilarated
6	luminous*	1] Full of light or giving off light; glowing or shining: her luminous stars. 2] Phosphorescent, visible in the darkness. 3] Throwing light on a subject (a writer's work).	luminescent, effulgent, illuminated	murky, dusky, gloomy, tenebrous
7	luxurious	Characterised by or conducive to opulence or extreme comfort: a luxurious house complete with two Olympic-size swimming pools.	sumptuous, plush, palatial	poor, shabby, seedy
8	macabre	Suggesting death and decay; grim, gruesome: a macabre movie about vampires and ghouls.	gruesome, bloodcurdling, horrible	elightful, pleasant, reassuring
9	magnanimity*	The quality of generosity, as in forgiving insults or injuries: the magnanimity of a man who goes out of his way to do a favor for a former enemy.	nobility, altruism	pettiness, meanness
10	magnate	A famous or influential or wealthy person, especially within some industry: Hearst was a newspaper magnate.	tycoon, mogul	unknown, anonymous, unrecognized, unrenowned
11	magnum opus	1] A great work, especially of art or literature. 2] The most important work of an artist, writer.	—	—
12	maladroit	Unskillful, awkward, clumsy: maladroit public relations.	blundering, bungling	adroit, coordinated, dexterous, graceful, skillful
13	malediction	The pronouncing of a curse against someone: his maledictions against his enemies.	execration, imprecation	benediction, blessing
14	malevolent*	Wishing evil toward others: He is so malevolent that he hopes his enemies will die.	malign, malignant, malicious, hostile	benign, friendly
15	malleable*	1] Capable of being hammered or rolled out without breaking, as a metal: Soft gold is very malleable. 2] Easy to shape and mould: a docile, malleable child.	1] ductile, pliable, flexible. 2] tractable	1] brittle, rigid, hard 2] intractable, independent
16	marauder	A person who roves and raids in search of plunder: The marauders stripped twenty farmhouses.	raider, plunderer, pillager	—

17	marginalize	1] Exclude or ignore, especially by relegating to the outer edge of a group: It is Woodward's Machiavellian moves that led to Robert Bates and Bannerman being marginalised in the Republican party. 2] Leave on the fringes of society: Towering economic and social problems which effectively leave half the population marginalized. 3] Make, treat as insignificant.	insignificant, minimal, negligible	—
18	maudlin	Excessively and tearfully emotional or sentimental: a maudlin drunk . Etym: The word maudlin derives from 'Madeleine', the Old French spelling of '(Mary) Magdalen', who is often depicted with eyes swollen from weeping.	self-pitying, weepy, mushy	cheerful, animated
19	maverick*	One who is unorthodox in his ideas, attitudes, etc.: the unconventional, odd-sounding opinions of a maverick . Etym: This word derives from the name of Samuel A. Maverick, a nineteenth century Texas lawyer who did not brand his cattle.	nonconformist	conformist, conventionalist, traditionalist
20	mellifluous	Sweetly or smoothly flowing: the soft unbroken rhythm of a mellifluous chant .	dulect, melodious	harsh, discordant
21	mellow	1] Ripe, soft, and with good flavour; sweet and juicy: a mellow apple . 2] Fully matured: a mellow wine . 3] Soft and rich; full and pure without harshness: a violin with a mellow tone; a mellow light in a picture, velvet with a mellow colour . 4] Figuratively softened and made wise by age or experience: The baronet was ... as merry and mellow an old bachelor as ever followed by a hound .	1] grow, mellow 2] cultured, matured, seasoned 4] amicable	1] raw 2] unseasoned 4] antisocial
22	mendacious*	Lying; deceitful, or false: Don't believe anything he says, for he is a mendacious man .	deceitful, deceptive, duplicitous	honest, trustworthy
23	mendicant	A beggar: a mendicant beseeching passersby for money .	panhandler	philanthropist, benefactor, philanthropic
24	mercurial	Lively, quick-witted, and characterised by rapid unpredictable changes of mood or activity: the prima donna's mercurial temperament . Etym: Mercurial derives from Mercury , the Roman messenger of the Gods who was depicted as fleet-footed, quick-witted, eloquent, and thievish.	volatile, changeable, sprightly	constant, predictable, clumsy, oafish
25	meticulous*	Very or excessively careful about details, including tiny and unimportant details: She has maintained meticulous records of her business .	painstaking, finicky, careful, precise	careless, sloppy

Wordlist 19

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	misanthrope*	A person who hates his fellow men. Avoids human society, loner, recluse, unsociable	cynic, misogynist, recluse, skeptic	believer, optimist
2	misconstrue	To interpret wrongly: He misconstrued my intentions and thought I wanted to rob him instead of help him.	misunderstand, misinterpret	interpret, right, straighten out, untwist
3	mitigate*	To make or become less severe or rigorous: Morphine mitigates pain. The governor mitigated the prison sentence.	alleviate, soften, lessen, moderate	heighten, intensify, magnify, provoke
4	mollify*	1] To soothe the temper of; pacify, appease. 2] To make less intense, severe, or violent: He tried to mollify his father's anger by apologising.	placate, pacify	add fuel to the fire, twist the knife, provoke
5	mordant	Harshly ironic or sinister	offensive, sarcastic, sharp	nice, complimentary, flattering
6	mordacious	Capable of wounding	brutal, scornful, severe	humane, caring, gentle
7	moribund	Lacking vitality, expiring. At the point of death; dying.	declining, disintegrating, doomed, expiring, fading	flourishing, rejuvenating, reviving, thriving
8	mortify	1] To humiliate; shame: Her child's unruly behaviour mortified her. 2] To discipline the body by fasting, etc.: The monk mortified himself by daily flagellation.	embarrass, humiliate, disgrace	delight, enlighten, compliment, encourage, inspire, praise
9	munificent	Extraordinarily generous (said of both gift and giver): The private school received a munificent bequest of $1 million.	generous, beneficent, benevolent	miser, malevolent
10	nadir	The lowest possible point: After ten parole rejections, the prisoner's faith had reached its nadir.	base, bedrock	zenith, summit, pinnacle
11	naive	1] Having an unaffected or simple nature; artless: a naive young country girl. 2] Lacking deliberate or careful analysis: Those ideas are naive.	childlike, ingenuous, unsophisticated	artful, sophisticated
12	nebulous	1] Of, pertaining to, or like a nebula. 2] Cloudy, misty: a nebulous day. 3] Vague of confused; unclear: He seemed to have a nebulous idea of his rights.	ambiguous, obscure	defined, distinct
13	nefarious	Extremely wicked; vile: a nefarious plot to overthrow the President.	villainous, infamous, evil	admirable, elegant
14	nimble	1] Showing mental quickness. 2] Moving or acting quickly or lightly.	agile	sluggish, tardy
15	noisome	Has nothing to do with noise. It is a shortened form of 'annoysome'. It is used to describe an offensive odor.	smelly, stinking, fetid, disgusting, offensive	aromatic, fragrant
16	noxious	Causing harm to health or morals: noxious factory fumes.	harmful, injurious	beneficial, healthy
17	obdurate*	Hardened against the influence or arguments of others: He was obdurate in his determination to punish his son.	inflexible, hardhearted	soft, compassionate

18	obfuscate	To darken (often deliberately) where there is already some light and, thus, confuse and bewilder.	mystify	expose, uncover
19	objurgate	To scold or rebuke sharply.	criticize	praise
20	obliterate	To destroy utterly, leaving no trace; completely exterminate or erase: The nuclear bomb obliterated an entire city.	wipe out, eradicate, raze	create, preserve, build
21	obsequious*	Submissive and flattering in a cringing way: an, obsequious courtier flattering the king.	inhumation	—
22	obsolete	Outdated or no longer used.	bygone	existing
23	obstreperous	Noisy or boisterous, especially in defiance of instructions or requests: The teacher could not force the obstreperous children to sit quietly.	unruly, unmanageable, wild, vociferous	quiet, obedient, docile
24	obtrude	1] To put forward unasked and unwanted; force: Don't obtrude your opinion on others. 2] To push out; thrust forward: a turtle obtrudes its head from its shell.	project, protrude, stick out	withdraw, withhold
25	obtuse	1] Dull-witted or insensitive; very slow or unable to perceive or understand: He is too obtuse to understand a complex-problem. 2] Blunt or rounded, as opposed to sharp or angular: an obtuse object with no pointed corners.	1] dull, stupid. 2] dull	1] bright, sharp. 2] sharp, pointed

Wordlist 20

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	obviate*	To prevent or remove a difficulty, drawback, etc.: Tinted light bulbs obviate the problem of glare.	eliminate, avoid	create, aggravate
2	occlude*	To cause to become closed.	plug	free
3	officious*	Meddlesome; interfering in what is not one's concern: an officious busybody offering unneeded and unwelcome advice.	interfering, obtrusive	—
4	ominous	Threatening: an ominous silence.	menacing, sinister	encouraging, auspicious
5	opportune	1] Especially right or fit: A patio is an opportune place for a barbecue. 2] Occurring at the right moment: The opportune time to request a raise is when the boss is in a good mood.	1] appropriate, suitable. 2] timely	1] inappropriate, unsuitable. 2] untimely
6	opprobrium*	The reproach brought about by shameful conduct; ignominy: Her wild behavior has brought great opprobrium on her family.	infamy, disgrace	—
7	orotund	1] With a well-rounded, resonant voice: Baritones should be orotund. 2] Pompous; inflated: The senator made an orotund speech. Etym: Orotund comes from the Latin phrase 'arc rotundo', meaning 'with a round mouth'.	magniloquent	restrained
8	oscillate*	1] Swing or move regularly back and forth. 2] To be indecisive in purpose or opinion: Human nature oscillates between good and evil.	vacillate	steady, steadfast
9	ostensible*	Offered as real or genuine: the ostensible reason for the trip was to attend a convention; but, actually, he wanted a vacation.	apparent, professed	hidden
10	ostentatious	Intended to attract attention: His gold-plated Rolls-Royce seemed unduly ostentatious.	showy, conspicuous	subdued, modest
11	override	1] To overrule: The chairman's veto was overridden by the committee. 2] To prevail over; set aside: The new rule overrides all previous ones. 3] To ride over; trample on: overriding another's happiness in pursuit of your own. 4] To intervene and cancel the operation of: The timely piece of legislation did much to override the pernicious practice.	annul	approve
12	paeon	A hymn of praise; used figuratively for any lavish praise: a paeon for the superb performance.	psalm, anthem	condemnation
13	palpable	1] Readily perceived: There is a palpable difference between chocolate and vanilla. 2] Capable of being touched or felt.	obvious, evident	concealed, hidden
14	pandemonium	Wild disorder and uproar: The party ended in absolute pandemonium.	chaos, riot, bedlam	order, orderliness

15	paradigm	1] A pattern, example or model. 2] An overall concept accepted by most people in an intellectual community, as a science, because of its effectiveness in explaining a complex process, idea, or set of data: ... Particular models or paradigms of society and how it works. This episode may serve as a paradigm of the industry's problems.	—	—
16	parity	The state or condition of being the same in power, value, rank, etc.: We must achieve parity of incomes between two jobs.	evenness	inequality
17	parochial	Provincial; narrow-minded: His parochial prejudices included the belief that women should not drink, or wear make-up.	narrow, limited, insular	broad, cosmopolitan
18	parsimonious	Stingy with money: a parsimonious old miser.	penurious, tight-fisted	generous, philanthropic
19	partisan*	A fervent, sometimes militant supporter of a party.	supporter	opponent
20	paucity*	Smallness of number or of quantity: There was a paucity of seats in the small theater.	dearth, scarcity	abundance
21	pedantic*	Characterized by a narrow, often ostentatious concern for book learning and formal rules.	precise
22	pedestrian	1] Going or done on foot, walking. 2] Of or for pedestrians (a pedestrian crossing). 3] Lacking quality or imagination; prosaic; ordinary and dull: A lacklustre, pedestrian performance.	monotonous	electrifying
23	peevish	1] Cross, fretful, complaining: a peevish child is unhappy. 2] Showing annoyance, irritation.	petulant, pettish, irritable	uncomplaining, cheerful
24	penitent	Affected by a sense of guilt and resolved to do better: He was penitent about his fit of bad temper.	sorry, regretful, contrite	impenitent
25	penury*	Extreme poverty and want: The family was in a state of wretched penury.	indigence, destitution	wealth, riches

Wordlist 21

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	perfidious*	Guilty of breach of faith; treacherous: a perfidious attack on an ally.	faithless, disloyal	loyal, trustworthy
2	perennial*	Lasting for a very long time; enduring: the perennial beauty of the hills.	abiding, continual, permanent, perpetual, everlasting, eternal	short-lived, transient, ephemeral, off-and-on, casual
3	pernicious	Having the power to destroy or injure; a very injurious: the pernicious business of selling heroin.	deadly, baneful, harmful	beneficial
4	perspicacious	Keenly discerning or understanding: a perspicacious instructor.	astute, shrewd, sagacious	undiscerning, shortsighted
5	perspicuous	Clear in statement or expression; easily understood; lucid. Note that this word differs in meaning from 'perspicacious'.	limpid	unsystematic
6	perturb	To disquiet or disturb greatly: He was perturbed because she kept him waiting.	agitate, excite, distress	calm, soothe
7	pinnacle	The highest point or place: When he was elected President he knew he had reached the pinnacle of his political career.	peak, apex, summit	nadir
8	pithy	Terse, meaty, and forceful: a pithy one-page summary of the complex issue.	pointed, succinct	word, rambling
9	placate*	To calm or appease the anger of: The shopkeeper placated the irate customer by promising to replace the imperfect merchandise.	pacify, soothe, mollify	aggravate, antagonize
10	platitude*	A flat, dull, or commonplace statement, a truism, such as " Hard work is the key to success ".	shallowness	profoundness
11	portend	To warn as an omen; forebode: Dark clouds portend rain.	augur, presage	—
12	potentate	A possessor of power or authority: Hollywood potentates blackballed the actor.	sovereign, monarch, mogul	—
13	pragmatic*	Practical; matter-of-fact: the pragmatic solution to a problem.	rational	impractical
14	precarious*	Subject to continued risk or danger: his precarious position on the window sill.	risky, hazardous, uncertain	safe, protected
15	precipitate*	To hasten the occurrence of something: The verbal exchange precipitated a fistfight.	quicken	decelerate
16	preclude	To render impossible by necessary consequence or implication: Our European trip precludes a visit to Canada this year.	prevent, obviate	allow
17	precocious	Unusually developed or advanced, especially for one's stage: The precocious four-year-old could multiply and divide accurately.	advanced	backward
18	precursor*	A person who or a thing that precedes and suggests the course of future events: Isaac Newton was the precursor of the modern physicist.	forerunner, predecessor	—

19	presage	A sign or warning of a future event; omen; portent augury. She could not sleep at night and was haunted by a presage of disaster.	premonish	—
20	prevaricate*	To tell a lie: Telling the truth is better than prevaricating.	misrepresent, postpone	correct
21	procrastinate	To put off taking action until a future time: He procrastinated so long that he missed the opportunity.	defer, delay, postpone	expedite, hasten, hurry
22	probity*	Complete and confirmed integrity.	honesty	deception
23	profundity*	Great depth.	completeness	shallowness
24	prolix	Using too many words; too long; tedious.	wordy, verbose	pithy, laconic
25	propensity*	An innate inclination; a tendency.	proneness	inaptitude

Wordlist 22

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	propitiate*	To conciliate; appease.	tranquilize	upset
2	prosaic	1] Failing to arouse animation or interest; unimaginative; dull: She was bored with her prosaic existence. 2] Pertaining to or like prose.	commonplace, tedious	animated, interesting, lively
3	proscribe*	To prohibit: The Bill of Rights proscribes illegal search and entry.	boycott	prescribe, sanction, authorise, legalise
4	proselytize	To make a convert of: The missionaries proselytized the heathen.	convert, recruit	remain
5	protract	To draw out or lengthen in time; prolong: to protract a visit.	extend, continue	shorten, curtail
6	proviso	A stipulation, as in a contract or statute, limiting or modifying it, or rendering it conditional: Her contract contained a proviso limiting the number of personal appearances she would have to make.	condition	—
7	prudent*	Wise in handling practical matters.	watchful	negligent
8	puerile	Characterised of childhood; juvenile: the bad habit of making puerile jokes.	childish, silly, immature	adult, mature
9	pugnacious	Disposed to fight; quarrelsome: a pugnacious boxer.	belicose, combative	calm, mild
10	puissant	Having great power or strength: I see in my mind a noble and puissant nation, rousing herself like a strong man after sleep (Milton).	strengthly	weak
11	punctilious	Attentive to points of etiquette, etc.: She was punctilious in setting the table for the formal dinner.	meticulous, scrupulous	careless, offhand
12	pusillanimous	Characterised by lack of courage: too pusillanimous to complain.	timid, cowardly, weak	bold
13	qualm	A painful feeling of uneasiness arising from a consciousness that one is or may be acting wrongly: He had no qualms about having cheated on the test.	scruple, compunction, misgiving	indifference
14	quandary	A state of uncertainty; perplexing situation or position; dilemma: Having captured our men, we were in a quandary to keep them.	predicament, difficulty, puzzle	serenity
15	quiescence*	Being quiet, still, or at rest; inactive.	dormancy	continuance
16	quintessence	1] The purest form of some quality; pure essence. 2] The perfect example of something: Her costume was the quintessence of good taste and style.	pith	—
17	quizzical	Puzzled: a quizzical glance.	skeptical, curious	believing, trusting
18	racy	1] Vigorous, lively: a racy, unpretentious style of writing. 2] Having an agreeably peculiar taste or flavour: a racy apple.	1] spirited 2] piquant, spicy	spiritless

19	raison d'etre	Reason for being; justification for existence: Selling, after all, is their raison d'etre.	–	–
20	rambunctious	1] Wild, disorderly, boisterous, unruly etc.: The weekend bash was marked by drinking bouts and rambunctious revelry. 2] Difficult to control and handle	termagant, unruly	laid-back
21	rancor	Bitter and vindictive hatred; spitefulness: He continued to bear rancor long after the quarrel.	malice, spite	friendliness
22	rapacious	Greedy; grasping; extortionate: rapacious loan sharks.	predatory	gentle
23	rarefy*	1] To make or become thin or less (the rarefied mountain air). 2] To make or become more refined, subtle.	extract	dirty
24	raucous	1] Harsh-sounding; hoarse: a raucous laugh. 2] Boisterous; disorderly: a raucous party.	strident, rough	soft, mild
25	ravenous	Violently hungry; voracious: the difficulty of feeding ten ravenous children. Etym: The central modern meaning of ravenous, ‘very hungry’, developed from the notion of predatory animals that ‘seize’ and eat their prey.	ravening, famished	full

Wordlist 23

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	raw	1] Not processed, edited, or interpreted: raw data . 2] Inexperienced; not yet developed or trained: raw recruit . 3] With the skin rubbed off or torn off; sore or inflamed: a raw cut . 4] Brutal or coarse in frankness: a raw language . 5] Harsh or unfair: a raw deal . 6] In the raw: in the natural state; without cultivation or refinement .	unprocessed	—
2	raze	To level to the ground; demolish: The Romans razed Carthage . Spelling tip: When you raise something you are beginning it; when you raze it you come to the end, like 'z'. Note: 'razed to the ground' is a redundancy which is better avoided. Simply say: razed.	destroy, flatten	construct
3	recalcitrant*	Refusing to comply; obstinate or rebellious: a recalcitrant student body .	defiant, stubborn	cooperative, obedient, tractable, submissive
4	recapitulate	To review briefly; sum up: The judge recapitulated the evidence for the jury .	summarize, restate, outline	scatter
5	recluse*	Someone who avoids all other people by shutting himself off from the world: He was a recluse for twelve years .	hermit, solitary	—
6	recondite*	Difficult to understand: the recondite writings of theoretical physicists .	obscure, abstruse, arcane	understandable, comprehensible
7	recrimination	An accusation made in answer to an accusation: The angry salesmen exchanged recriminations .	countercharge	—
8	rectitude	Honesty; integrity; morality: A man of rectitude does not renege on a promise .	principle, honour	dishonesty
9	redoubtable	Inspiring fear or dread; formidable: a redoubtable enemy . Etym: From the old French 'redoubtable' which originated from 'redouter', to dread or fear.	fearsome, intimidating	delightful, reassuring
10	remonstrate	To plead earnestly with, as in protest or reproof: He remonstrated with the noisy children .	expostulate, object, protest	keep silent
11	renege	1] In card games to fail to follow suit when required to; revoke. 2] To fail to keep a promise: He reneged on his offer to entertain the children .	default, pull out	undertake
12	reprobate*	A wicked or corrupt person; scoundrel.	profligate, scamp	good, honest
13	repudiate*	To refuse to accept as true or binding, disown: He repudiated our agreement .	disclaim	hold, retain
14	rescind	To make void; repeal: to rescind an order .	cancel, abrogate, revoke	permit
15	resilient	1] Springing back to a former shape or position: A rubber ball is resilient . 2] Able to recover from trouble, sorrow, etc.: a man of resilient character .	changeable	inflexible
16	reticent*	Saying little; inclined to hesitate; uncommunicative.	tight-lipped, restrained	unreserved

17	revere*	To regard with deep respect, love and awe, venerate: They literally revered the Maths professor who was a legendary figure, able to attract students from other disciplines to attend his lectures as guests.	reverence, worship, respect, esteem.	disrespect, disparage, denigrate
18	robust	1] Strong, healthy, sturdy: a robust person; a robust mind. 2] Suited to or requiring bodily strength: robust exercises. Crowds in this country prefer a more robust game. 3] Vigorous, wholesome: Experts express robust optimism for the performance of the economy in the coming year.	hardy, stalwart, stout, sound	delicate, feeble
19	rudiment	A first principle, step, stage, or condition: the rudiments of French.	basic, fundamental, starter, beginning	final
20	sagacity	Discernment and wisdom: the sagacity of the wise old statesmen.	judgment, sense, perceptiveness	foolishness
21	salacious	Lewd; lustful; obscene: a salacious man; a salacious joke.	obscene, dirty	clean, godly
22	salubrious*	1] Promoting health; healthful. 2] Favorable to health of mind or body.	beneficial, healthy, hygienic	disadvantageous, harmful, unhelpful
23	salutary	Tending to promote physical well-being; beneficial to health.	nourishing, nutrient	harmful, injurious
24	sanction*	Approval that makes a course of action valid.	authorize	disallow
25	sanguine	1] Cheerful, confident and optimistic: A sanguine man sees the world through rose-colored glasses. 2] Having a healthy, rosy color; ruddy. 3] Having the color of blood.	1] buoyant, hopeful	1] uncertain, unsure

Wordlist 24

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	sap	1] A watery solution of sugars, salts, and minerals that circulates through the vascular system of a plant. 2] A person who lacks good judgment. 3] deplete.	2] nitwit, idiot 3] exhaust, drain, deplete	2] genius 3] fortify, intensify
2	sardonic	Scornful or derisive; sneering: a sardonic expression .	caustic, mocking, cynical, jaundiced	pleasant
3	sartorial	Pertaining to men's clothes: the sartorial splendor of the Edwardian dandy .	—	—
4	satiates*	1] Fill to satisfaction; sate. 2] Overeat or eat immodestly; make a pig of oneself. Supplied (especially fed) to satisfaction.	content, glut, sate	deplete, empty, let out
5	saturate*	Infuse or fill completely.	overload, overstock	—
6	saturnine	Sluggish, morose, or taciturn. The saturnine young man returned to France as the dashing hero of a cause .	sullen	pleasant
7	savant	A learned person, saint, sage, eminent scholar: Saint Simon divided mankind into three classes: the savants, the propertied, and the unpropertied (Edmund Wilson) .	intellectual	ignorant
8	savor*	Derive or receive pleasure from; get enjoyment from; take pleasure in.	relish, flavor, experience, bask	abhorrence, aversion, repulsion
9	scintillate	To sparkle; glitter; twinkle: stars that scintillate in the sky . Etym: In terms of etymology, 'scintillate' and 'tinsel' are the same. 'Tinsel' is something that 'sparkles'.	radiate	extinguish
10	scruple	A feeling of hesitancy, doubt, or uneasiness arising from difficulty in deciding what is right, proper, or ethical; uneasiness affecting conscience: He has scruples about playing cards for money .	qualm, scrupulous	be certain, certainty
11	scrupulous	Conscientious, exact, or careful: a scrupulous person; a scrupulous account of all the expenses .	meticulous, punctilious, fastidious	inaccurate
12	scurrilous	Grossly and offensively abusive: scurrilous language; scurrilous writing .	opprobrious	respectful
13	scurry	To move about or proceed hurriedly	bustle, dart, dash, rush, scamper	dawdle, delay, linger, plod, slog, trudge
14	seamy	Morally degraded.	sordid, squalid	reputable
15	sear	1] Make very hot and dry. 2] Become superficially burned. 3] Cause to wither or parch from exposure to heat. (used especially of vegetation) having lost all moisture.	burn, cauterize, scorch	chill, freeze, refrigerate
16	secrete*	1] Generate and separate from cells or bodily fluids. 2] Place out of sight; keep secret.	2] disguise, secure, stash, conceal	2] expose, reveal, uncover

17	sedate	Calm, quiet, or composed, esp. serious and unemotional.	serious, staid, decorous	ruffled, perturbed, upset, fazed
18	sedulous	Marked by care and persistent effort.	diligent, attentive, industrious, laborious, persevering	laid-back, lax, lazy, neglectful, negligent
19	sentient	1] Endowed with feeling and unstructured consciousness. 2] Consciously perceiving.	perceptive, sensible, savvy	ignorant, insensitive, unaware
20	sermon	1] An address of a religious nature (usually delivered during a church service). 2] A moralistic rebuke.	preaching, discourse, doctrine	—
21	servile	1] Pertaining to or involving slaves. 2] Submissive or fawning in attitude or behavior.	grovelling, abject	dignified, esteemed, exalted
22	shard*	A broken piece of a brittle artifact	specimen, splinter, speck	total, whole
23	shelve	To lay aside, as if on a shelf; to defer: to shelve a project ; to shelve a discussion .	prorogue, put off	keep on 24	shirk	Avoid (one's assigned duties).	elude, eschew, evade	comply, conform, abide
25	simper	Smile affectedly or derisively.	smirk, sneer, leer	—

Wordlist 25

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	skeptic*	Someone who habitually doubts accepted beliefs.	agnostic, atheist, disbeliever, cynic	believer, faithful
2	skinflint	A selfish person who is unwilling to give or spend.	stingy, miserly, parsimonious	generous, liberal, extravagant
3	skirmish	A minor short-term fight. Engage in a skirmish.	clash, encounter, combat, conflict	agreement, tranquility, calm, quiet, peace
4	slack	A noticeable decline in performance.	laggard, lax, lethargic, neglectful, slothful, sluggish, tardy	firm, tight, responsible, diligent, dependable, hard-working
5	slake	1] Satisfy (thirst). 2] Make less active or intense. 3] Cause to heat and crumble by treatment with water, as of lime.	quench, sponge	—
6	slew	1] A large number or amount or extent. 2] Kill intentionally and with premeditation; slay, slain	1] magnitude, measure, swerve	countable, finite, limited, numbered
7	slippage	1] Failing to hold or slipping out of place. 2] Decline from a standard level of performance or achievement.	1] slumping, subjacent, underneath	1] above, higher, up
8	sodden	Wet through and through; thoroughly wet.	drenched, soaking, dripping	arid, dried, parched,
9	sombre	1] dark, gloomy; having deep shadows: A cloudy winter day is sombre. 2] melancholy, dismal: a somber expression.	1] murky 2] depressing	bright, cheerful
10	solicitous	1] Full of anxiety and concern. 2] Showing hovering attentiveness.	anxious, concerned, apprehensive	inconsiderate, negligent, rude
11	soporific*	1] Sleep inducing. 2] Inducing mental lethargy.	anesthetic, narcotic, sedative, slumberous	analeptic, stimulant, energetic, vivacious
12	spasmodic	1] Resembling a spasm: a spasmodic cough. 2] Figurative: Sudden, violent, but brief; 3] Occurring very irregularly, intermittently: a spasmodic interest in reading.	3] fitful	3] regular, constant, steady, uninterrupted
13	specious*	Apparently good, right, or true; but actually not: specious reasoning.	spurious	straightforward
14	sporadic*	Appearing now and then, or at intervals in time; occasional; scattered: sporadic outbreaks of violence.	intermittent	continuous
15	squander	1] Spend thoughtlessly; throw away. 2] Spend extravagantly or wastefully on.	dissipate, expend, misspend	thrifty, economize
16	squelch	Suppress or crush completely.	suppress, repress	endorse, permit
17	statute	An act passed by a legislative body. Enacted by a legislative body.	ordinance, regulation, edict	—
18	stealth	Avoiding detection by moving carefully.	concealment, confidential, covertness	overt, public

19	steep	Greatly exceeding bounds of reason or moderation	1] extortionate 2] exorbitant	economical, reasonable
20	stentorian	Extremely loud: the drill sergeant's stentorian voice.	deafening, thunderous	soft, low, weak
21	stickler	1] Someone who insists on something 2] Something puzzling or difficult	1] disciplinarian, martinet	—
22	stigma*	1] A symbol of disgrace or infamy. 3] A skin lesion that is a diagnostic sign of some disease.	1] blemish, disgrace, smudge	1] esteem, honor, regard
23	stint*	1] An, unbroken period of time during which you do something. 2] Supply sparingly, with a meager allowance.	1] scrimp, scrape	2] spend, squander
24	stipulate*	1] Specify as a condition or requirement in a contract or agreement 2] Give a guarantee or promise of	1] specify, transact 2] vouch	1] disagree 2] renege
25	stolid*	Having or revealing little emotion or sensibility; not easily aroused or excited.	passive, phlegmatic, stoic, callous	concerned, interested, passionate

Wordlist 26

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	stratagem	A trick or ruse to win a battle, outwit an opponent, or obtain something by misleading or deceiving; a crafty maneuver: a stratagem to lure the enemy troops into an ambush.	wile, subterfuge	forthrightness
2	strut*	To walk with a lofty proud gait, often in an attempt to impress others.	flaunt, flounce, stride, swagger, swank	conceal, modest, downplay
3	stultify	To make worthless or ineffectual; frustrate; invalidate: The system tends to stultify our efforts to effect changes.	nullify, blunt, dull, paralyse	vitalise, stir, enliven
4	stupefy	To dull the senses or faculties of; stun: to be stupefied by a blow.	daze, bewilder, flabbergast	sensitise, alert
5	stygian	Dark and dismal.	gloomy, infernal	bright, sunny
6	stymie	Hinder or prevent the progress or accomplishment of-stymie.	impede, thwart	assist, unblock
7	sublimate	1] To purify; refine: In most of Hardy's novels set in Essex, there is no attempt to sublimate nature but to depict it in the raw. 2] To change (an undesirable impulse or trait) into a more desirable or acceptable activity: He tried to sublimate the problem by writing, in detail, about it.	distill	dirty, pollute
8	subpoena*	A writ issued by court authority to compel the attendance of a witness at a judicial proceeding.	decree, edict	—
9	subservient	1] Subordinate in capacity or function 2] Submissive	1] ancillary, subjugated 2] servile	1] main, primary
10	subside*	1] Wear off or die down 2] Sink down or precipitate	1] abate, dwindle, settle, wane 2] ebb, recede	1] amplify, magnify 2] surge
11	substantial	1] Fairly large 2] Of good quality and condition; solidly built; real 3] Providing abundant nourishment	1] ample, tidy 2] concrete	1] meager 2] fictitious
12	substantiate*	1] Establish or strengthen, as with new evidence or facts 2] Make real or concrete; give reality or substance to	1] corroborate, ratify 2] embody, realize	1] belie, deny, rebut
13	succinct*	Avoiding unnecessary words; briefly expressed: He gave his views in a few succinct sentences. Spelling tip: Succinct has three c's.	terse, concise, laconic	prolix, verbose, long-winded
14	summarily	Without delay.	expeditiously, eremptorily	belatedly, tardily
15	sumptuous	Involving lavish expenditure; luxurious; magnificent: Our host provided a sumptuous feast.	rich, costly	frugal, simple, plain
16	supercilious	Exhibiting contempt; arrogant: His supercilious behavior offended his host. Etym: Supercilious comes from the Latin word meaning 'eyebrow' suggesting the raising of eyebrows by the supercilious.	proud, scornful	friendly, sociable
17	superficial	1] Relating to a surface 2] Of little substance or significance; not penetrating emotionally or intellectually	1] cosmetic 2] cursory, trivial	1] intrinsic 2] comprehensive

18	superfluous	1] Serving no useful purpose; having no excuse for being 2] More than is needed or desired	1] gratuitous, redundant 2] surplus	1] essential, imperative 2] deficient
19	supine	1] Lying face upward 2] Offering no resistance	1] prostrate 2] languid, passive, torpid	1] erect, vertical
20	supplant	Take the place or move into the position of	displace, supersede, usurp	include
21	supplement	Textual matter that is added onto a publication; usually at the end Add as a supplement to what seems insufficient	postscript, append, buttress	deduct, subtract
22	supplicate	To ask for humbly or by earnest prayer or entreaty: to supplicate mercy.	entreat, beseech, implore	demand
23	supposition*	1] An opinion based on incomplete evidence 2] A hypothesis that is taken for granted	1] conjecture, inference 2] postulate	—
24	surfeit	The state of being more than full.	cram, gorge, satiate	dearth, lack
25	surreptitious	Done or acting secretly; underhand; clandestine: a surreptitious meeting.	secret, furtive	open, straightforward, plain

Wordlist 27

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	surrogate	Someone who takes the place of another person	deputy, substitute, foster	original, principal
2	susceptible	Easily impressed emotionally or yielding to	sensitive, swayed, vulnerable	intractable, unwilling
3	suspend	1] Hang freely 2] Bar temporarily; from school, etc. 3] Make inoperative or stop	1] dangle, swing 3] adjourn, protract	3] convene, resume
4	swerve	An erratic deflection from an intended course. Turn sharply; change direction abruptly	careen, deviate, veer	abide, confirm
5	synchronous	Occurring or existing at the same time or rate	coincident, concurrent, parallel	unrelated
6	syncopated	Cut short; abbreviated	—	—
7	synoptic	1] Presenting a summary or general view of a whole 2] Taking the same point of view.	1] abridged, condensed, succinct	1] enlarged, expanded, verbose
8	tacit*	Implied by or inferred from actions or statements	implicit, implied	explicit, known
9	taciturn	Habitually silent or reserved; disinclined to conversation.	uncommunicative	communicative, talkative
10	taint	1] Place under suspicion or cast doubt upon 2] Contaminate with a disease or morally corrupt	1] shame, vitiate 2] adulterate, pollute	1] glorify 2] cleanse, purify
11	tangential*	1] Of superficial relevance 2] Of or relating to or acting along or in the direction of a tangent	1] digressive, perimetric	1] primary, relevant
12	tangible	1] Perceptible by the senses especially the sense of touch 2] Having substance or material existence	1] palpable, tactile 2] concrete	1] imperceptible 2] mental, unreal
13	tardy	1] Behind time; late; delayed or dilatory. 2] Slow in motion or action; sluggish: The old bus was tardier than ever.	held up	timely
14	taut	1] Pulled or drawn tight 2] Subject to great tension 3] Marked by the efficient, sparing, or concise use of something: The taut plot of the novel.	1] rigid 2] anxious	1] slack 2] assured
15	tedium	Boredom: There was little to relieve the tedium of his lonely days.	ennui, tediousness	excitement
16	teetotal	Practicing complete abstinence from alcoholic beverages	abstemious	wanton
17	temerity	Foolish or rash boldness, foolhardiness, recklessness: He had the temerity to propose to her when he knew that she was several situations above him in social standing.	audacity, effrontery, nerve cheek, gall, chutzpah	timidity, fear, apprehension, diffidence
18	tendentious	Marked by a strong tendency, especially a controversial one	partisan, warped	genuine, objective

19	tender	1] offer or present for acceptance 2] make soft 3] showing kindness, and affection 4] sensitive to pain 5] young and vulnerable	5] callow	5] mature
20	tentative	1] Unsettled in mind or opinion 2] Not fully worked out	1] cautious 2] contingent, provisional	1] certain, confident
21	tenuous*	Flimsy or delicate: The old man retained a tenuous hold on life.	gossamer, ethereal	strong
22	tepid	Moderately warm.	lukewarm	hot
23	terse	Short and to the point; concise: a terse comment.	pithy, succinct	diffuse, wordy
24	thrift	1] Extreme care in spending money 2] Vigorous growth of living things, such as plants	austerity, frugality, parsimony	charity, philanthropy
25	thwart	Hinder or prevent (the efforts, plans, or desires) of	frustrate, hinder, oppose	assist, encourage, unblock

Wordlist 28

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	timorous	Full of, or subject to, fear; timid: The new occupants were too timorous to complain to the landlord about the high rent.	fainthearted	bold, brave
2	tirade*	A speech of violent denunciation	diatribe, philippic	adulation, compliment
3	toady	A person who tries to please someone in order to gain a personal advantage.	sycophant, truckle	domineer, intimidate
4	torpor*	1] A state of motor and mental inactivity 2] Inactivity resulting from lack of vigor or energy 3] The dormant, inactive state of a hibernating or estivating animal-torporific.	1] oblivion 2] lassitude, lethargy	1] cognizance
5	torrid	1] Characterized by intense emotion 2] Rapid: Torrid downpour. 3] Burning hot	1] ardent, fervent 3] sultry	1] frigid 3] chilly
6	tortuous*	1] Highly involved or intricate 2] Marked by repeated turns and bends: The road to Srinagar is tortuous.	1] complex, labyrinthine 2] circuitous, serpentine	1] apparent, obvious 2] straight
7	tout	1] Advertize in strongly positive terms 2] Show off	1] herald, publicize 2] brag, trumpet	1] criticize 2] conceal, hide
8	toy	1] Behave carelessly or indifferently 2] Manipulate	1] dally, trifle	—
9	tractable*	1] Easily led or controlled; manageable: a tractable pony; a mild and tractable child. 2] Readily worked or handled; malleable: Gold is more tractable than iron.	docile, compliant, amenable	obstinate, fractious, rebellious
10	tranquil	Free from disturbance or emotional agitation.	serene, unruffled	frenzied, turbulent
11	transgression*	1] The violation of a law or a duty or moral principle 2] Overstepping a limit or boundary.	1] delinquency 2] encroachment, violation	1] adherence, conformity
12	transitional	Passage from one form, state, style, or place to another.	mutable, vacillating, get across	constant, regular
13	treacherous	1] Dangerously unstable and unpredictable: They crossed the treacherous strait with great trepidation. 2] Tending to betray	1] hazardous, precarious 2] perfidious	1] secure 2] ethical
14	tremulous	1] Trembling; quivering: The tremulous flutter of young leaves. The child's voice was tremulous with sobs. 2] Timid; feeling or showing fear: He was shy and tremulous in the presence of strangers.	shaking, vibrating	2] courageous, unafraid
15	trepidation	A feeling of alarm or dread.	alarm, panic, trepidity	assurance, nonchalance
16	truce	A state of peace agreed to between opponents so they can discuss peace terms.	armistice, stay	war

17	truculent*	Aggressively hostile; belligerent: a truculent mood.	angry, fierce, ruthless	mild, inoffensive, gentle
18	tumult	1] Noise or uproar; commotion: The sailor's voices could be heard above the tumult of the storm. 2] Violent disturbance or disorder: The shout of 'fire' caused a tumult in the theatre. 3] riot; insurrection: There is much blood-shedding in Spain and violent wars and tumults (George Borrow). 4] Figurative: a great disturbance of mind or feeling; confusion or excitement: The quarrel left her in a tumult.	3] brawl	calm, peace, quiet
19	turbid	1] Heavy, dark, or dense, as fog 2] clouded as with sediment 3] In a state of turmoil	1] obscure, tenebrous 2] blurred, muddy 3] addled	3] calm, organized
20	turbulence	1] Instability in the atmosphere 2] A state of violent disturbance and disorder	1] inclemency 2] mutiny, violence	2] order, serenity
21	turgid	1] Unnaturally puffed out; swollen. 2] Bombastic, as language, style, etc.: a turgid speech.	1] bloated, distended 2] pompous	1] shrunken 2] humble
22	turpitude*	Wickedness; vileness; depravity, or action showing this: the moral turpitude of Nero's times.	depravity	morality, virtue
23	tyro	Someone new to a field or activity	amateur, fledgling, novice, neophyte	expert, veteran
24	ubiquitous	Existing, or seeming to exist, everywhere at once; omnipresent: The television cameras, ubiquitous and demanding, overshadowed the entire convention.	pervasive, universal	exclusive
25	ulterior	Beyond what is seen or expressed; intentionally concealed or kept in the background; hidden: an ulterior motive, an ulterior purpose.	buried	exposed, revealed

Wordlist 29

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	unalloyed	1] Not in mixture with other metals; pure 2] Complete	genuine, sterling	—
2	unconventional	Not conforming to accepted rules or standards, whether legal, moral or social.	eccentric, offbeat, unorthodox	normal, standard
3	uncouth	1] Awkward, clumsy; crude, not refined: an uncouth person; uncouth manners. 2] Unusual and unpleasant: the eerie and uncouth noises of the jungle.	discourteous	graceful
4	undergird	1] Lend moral support to 2] Make secure underneath	2] bolster, brace, fortify	—
5	undermine	1] To weaken, injure, or impair 2] To hollow out; dig a tunnel or mine	1] sabotage, subvert	1] fortify 2] fill
6	underrate	Make too low an estimate of	deprecate, undervalue	aggrandize
7	underscore	1] Give extra weight to; emphasize 2] To underline	1] stress	1] minimize
8	unexceptionable	Not warranting even the slightest criticism; without flaw or fault: As a method to redress the mill worker's long-standing grievance, the government's bonus formula is unexceptionable.	immaculate	negligent
9	unearth	1] Bring to light 2] Lay bare through digging	2] excavate, exhume	1] avoid 2] cover
10	unexceptional	Not special in any way: The appetizer was excellent but the rest of the meal was unexceptional. N.B.: Do not confuse this word with the word 'unexceptionable' above.	commonplace	extraordinary
11	unfettered*	To set free or keep free from restrictions or bonds.	unchained	constrained
12	unflappable	Not easily excited, confused or alarmed; imperturbable: His unflappable poise was buttressed by arctic sarcasm.	placid	upset
13	unmitigated	Not lessened or eased: an unmitigated suffering; an unmitigated show.	long-standing	short-term
14	unscathed	Unharmed: Joe emerged unscathed from the fire.	sound, whole	injured, scarred
15	unscrupulous	Oblivious to or contemptuous of what is right or honorable	fraudulent, corrupt	trustworthy
16	untenable	1] Incapable of being defended or justified (related to theories, ideas) 2] Being such that occupation or habitation is impossible	1] flimsy, uncorroborated	1] substantial
17	untoward	1] Not in keeping with accepted standards of what is right or proper in polite society 2] Contrary to one's interests or welfare 3] Hard to guide or control; unruly	1] indecorous 2] adverse 3] awkward	1] suitable 3] adroit

18	upbraid	Utter a reproach to	berate, castigate, vituperate	adulate, extol, praise
19	urbane	Characterized by or having refinement or elegance; courteous; sauve : the urbane manners of a diplomat . Etym: Urbane and urban both came from the same Latin word, 'urbanus', meaning of the city.	polite, smooth	rough, rustic, rude
20	usurp	To seize and hold wrongfully; take possession of by force: The military junta usurped the king's power and made him a mere figure-head .	snatch	hand over
21	usury	1] An exorbitant or unlawful rate of interest 2] The act of lending money at an exorbitant rate of interest	—	—
22	vacillate*	Be undecided about something, as in trying to make a decision; to waver: She vacillated between wanting to be a blonde and a redhead .	waffle	be certain
23	vacuous	Life showing no thought or intelligence; stupid, foolish: the vacuous life .	blank, inane	expressive, lively
24	vapid	Without liveliness or flavor; insipid; flat and dull: her vapid chatter .	bland	animated, colorful
25	variegated	Having variety in form, character, etc. The variegated architecture of this Mediterranean island, once the meeting point of the civilisations of the West and the East .	mottled, dappled	homogeneous, identical

Wordlist 30

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	vegetate	1] To grow or develop as plants do: one really lives nowhere; one does but vegetate. 2] To live with every little action; thought or feeling; exist without intellectual or material achievement.	2] loaf, stagnate	2] active
2	vehement	1] Passionate or ardent; intense; fervent: his vehement protestations of innocence. 2] Full of energy; lively; vigorous: vehement gestures; vehement applause.	1] fiery, feverish 2] strenuous	1] calm, halfhearted 2] listless
3	venal	Capable of being corrupted	perfidious, rapacious	ethical, scrupulous
4	veneer	To conceal, as something common, with a deceptively attractive outward show	furbish, gloss	—
5	venerate*	Regard with feelings of respect and reverence	revere	dishonor
6	veracious*	1] Speaking the truth 2] Accurate	1] candid, authentic	1] evasive 2] vague
7	verbiage	Excess of word; wordiness: A simple idea buried under much verbiage.	verbosity, prolixity	conciseness, terseness
8	verbose*	Using or containing a wearisome and unnecessary number of words; words; wordy: a verbose, boring after-dinner, speech.	redundant, prolix, flatulent	terse, pithy, condensed
9	verdant	1] Green with vegetation 2] Lacking experience or sophistication; naive	1] sylvan 2] raw, rookie	2] veteran
10	verisimilar	Appearing to be true or real.	credible, plausible, possible	—
11	veritable	Not counterfeit or copied; genuine: He discovered a veritable treasure trove in the depths of the Congo.	authentic, bonafide	bogus, phony
12	vertigo	1] A reeling sensation; feeling about to fall 2] A confused, disoriented state of mind	giddiness	—
13	viable*	1] Capable of being done with means at hand and circumstances as they are 2] Capable of life or normal growth.	1] feasible, workable	2] dead
14	vicious	Brutal, strongly spiteful; savage and dangerous: A dictator's vicious love of power; the criminal leads a vicious life. I won't listen to such vicious gossip.	nefarious	good, virtuous
15	vigilant	Carefully observant; on the lookout for possible danger	alert, heedful, wary	lethargic, sluggish
16	vindictive*	Disposed to seek revenge or intended for revenge.	vengeful	harmless
17	violate	1] Act in disregard of laws and rules 2] To harm or destroy 3] spoil the sacred character of a place or language	1] breach, infract 2] plunder 3] profane	2] nurture, protect

18	virulent	1] Exceedingly harmful, poisonous, or infectious: The family was plagued by a virulent disease. 2] Full of bitterness and hate: a virulent speech attacking slum lords.	pernicious	1] benign 2] agreeable, content
19	vitiate	1] To make imperfect, faulty or impure; spoil, corrupt: Pollution from smoke and dust vitiates the air. The abridgement vitiated the original text. 2] To weaken, morally debase, pervert; Black money has totally vitiated the economy of the country. Corruption in top places has vitiated the political atmosphere.	debauch	embellish
20	vituperation*	Abusive language; censure: a torrent of vituperation.	invective, abuse	appreciation, praise
21	vivid	Having the clarity and freshness of immediate experience	distinct	blur
22	volatile*	1] Liable to lead to sudden change or violence 2] Marked by an erratic change in affections or attachments	2] capricious, fickle, whimsical	2] constant, steadfast
23	voluptuary	A person who gives himself up to sensual pleasures and luxury.	epicure	gentleman
24	voracious	1] Excessively greedy and grasping 2] Having or marked by an insatiable appetite for an activity or pursuit: She was a voracious reader of mystery novels.	1] ravenous 2] ardent, avid	2] blase, bored
25	vulnerable	1] Capable of being wounded or hurt 2] Susceptible to criticism or persuasion or temptation 3] Susceptible to physical or emotional injury	1] assailable, endangered	1] fortified, safe, secure

Wordlist 31

Sr. No	Word	Word Classes / Meaning	Syn.	Ant.
1	waffle	Pause or hold back in uncertainty or unwillingness.	confront, falter, waver	cavil, face
2	waft	1] Be driven or carried along, as by the air 2] Blow gently	1] transmit 2] whiff	—
3	wag	A witty, amusing person who makes jokes.	oscillate, wiggle	—
4	waive	1] To give up a claim to: to waive an option on a piece of land. 2] To put off; postpone; delay	totter, shuffle	withhold
5	wane	1] To lose size; become smaller: The moon wanes after it has become full. 2] To lose power, influence or importance: many great empires have waned. 3] To lose strength or intensity: Their early enthusiasm was waning.	diminish	enlarge
6	wanton	1] Undisciplined; unmanageable (a wanton child). 2] Sexually loose or unrestrained (a wanton woman). 3] Frisky, playful frolicsome. 4] Senseless, unprovoked unjustifiable or deliberately malicious (a wanton cruelty or a wanton insult)	immoral, lustful	reserved
7	warrant	To guarantee or attest to the character, quality, accuracy, or condition of.	sanction, approve, endorse	controvert, prohibit
8	wary*	1] On one's guard against danger or deception: a wary fox. 2] Careful, cautious: He gave wary answers to all of the stranger's questions.	alert, vigilant, watchful, guarded	asleep, inattentive
9	waver	1] Pause or hold back in uncertainty 2] Move hesitatingly 3] Move to and fro	1] waffle 2] falter 3] flicker	1] persist
10	wheedle*	To persuade by flattery smooth words, or caresses; coax: The children wheeled their mother into letting them go to the picnic.	inveigle, influence	bully
11	whimsical*	Determined by chance, impulse or whim-whimsy.	arbitrary, capricious	assured, rational
12	wile	A sly trick; deceitful artifice, stratagem.	deceptive	naivety, yielding
13	wilful	1] Done by design or with a purpose 2] Habitually disposed to disobedience and opposition	1] deliberate 2] froward headstrong	flourish, bloom
14	wither	Lose freshness, vigor, or vitality	atrophy, languish, shrivel	—
15	winsome	Attractive in a sweet, engaging way; charming: a winsome girl, a winsome smile.	pretty	repulsive, ugly
16	woeful	Accompanied by or causing misery; direful; regrettable: They lived in such woeful poverty.	miserable	comfortable
17	xenophobe	A person who hates or distrusts strangers or foreigners.	—	—

18	yahoo	a person who is variously thought of as coarse, uneducated, unrefined, anti-intellectual, etc.	rustic, oaf, bumpkin	—
19	yield	1] Produce, give forth, or give in return: The soil yields good crops; His investment yields a five percent return. 2] Give up, as to a superior power; surrender: to yield a fortress. 3] The amount yielded; product; result: an annual yield of 300 tons.	generate	impede
20	yokel	A person living in a rural area; country bumpkin.	rustic	gentleman
21	zealot*	An immoderate partisan; a fanatic.	enthusiast	disparager
22	zealous	Filled with or incited by great interest and devotion: zealous workers.	earnest, fervent, hardworking	slack, unenthusiastic
23	zeitgeist	(German: Pronounced Tsit'gist): the spirit of the age; the trend of thought and feeling in a period.	—	—
24	zenith	1] The point of heavens that is directly overhead, and opposite to the nadir. 2] The highest point or culminating point of power fortunes, prosperity, etc.: Venice was at her zenith as a sea power in the 15th century.	summit	lowest
25	zephyr	1] The west wind. 2] Any soft, gentle and lightweight worsted or woollen yarn.	breeze	—

Word Groups

HARSH/BITING/ SHARP acerbic acrimonious caustic incisive scathing trenchant	NOT THOROUGH cursory perfunctory summarily superficial	HELPFUL officious solicitous	HINT/INDIRECT REFERENCE allude/allusion cue implicit innuendo insinuate tacit Antonym blatant explicit patent
VARIETY diversity eclectic motley multifaceted multifarious sundry variegate versatile	BAN interdict sanction veto	CONFIRM/SUPPORT affirm clinch corroborate endorse ratify substantiate testify validate Antonym unfounded	STRENGTHEN/ SUPPORT bastion bolster buttress fortify prime prop
WITHOUT REAL POWER figurehead nominal titular	CAN'T DECIDE arbitrary capricious erratic inconsistent irresolute mercurial oscillate sway temperamental vacillate volatile waffle waver whimsical fluctuating	TO BLAME allege implicate impute incriminate indict recriminate	PLACE SIDE BY SIDE abut adjacent contiguous juxtaposition
DISRESPECTING SACRED THINGS blasphemy desecrate impious profane sacrilege Antonym consecrate	CARELESS/DIRTY disheveled rumpled shabby sloppy slovenly unkempt	FREE FROM BLAME absolve acquit exculpate exonerate vindicate	USED TO habituate immune inure inveterate

UNDERSTAND	IMPURE/POISONOUS	BEST EXAMPLE	FLATTER
apprehend assimilate comprehend fathom intelligible Antonym illegible	adulterate contaminate noxious toxic vitiate	apotheosis archetype embody epitome exemplify paradigm paragon personify	behest beseech entreaty implore importune supplicate
WEAK/FRAGILE	PERSUADE	INTELLIGENT/WISE	STUPID/FOOLISE
flimsy frail intangible tenuous Antonym palpable substantial tactile	cajole coax cogent enjoin exhort hortatory induce urge wheedle	acuity acumen astute discerning discriminating insightful judicious perceptive perspicacious prudent sagacious sage savant	asinine fatuous imbecile inane oafish obtuse
REMOVE/DESTROY	TEMPT/PLOT/TRICK	CAREFUL/PRECISE	SULKING/ BAD-TEMPERED
annihilate decimate efface eradicate expunge exterminate extirpate obliterate perish raze Antonym indelible	allure beguile collude connive conspire entice lure ploy ruse scheme tactic	conscientious fastidious meticulous nice punctilious purist scrupulous	dour morose peevish petulant pout saturnine sullen surly
			FALSEHOOD
			mendacity perjury prevarication Antonym varacity

ILLOGICAL/ STRANGE	PUZZLING	FEARFUL/ LACKING COURAGE	TO IRRITATE/ MAKE ANGRY
absurd atypical bizarre ludicrous outlandish preposterous uncanny	conundrum cryptic enigma garble inscrutable intrigue labyrinth maze	cower craven cringe daunt flinch petrify pusillanimous trepidation	disgruntle exasperate grate harangue heckle indignation infuriate irksome miffed nag nettle peeve pique vex
BRAVE	ACCUSE/DEFAME	RESPECT	WITHOUT DECEPTION
audacious chivalry dauntless gallant intrepid pluck undaunted valliant valor	aspersion calumny defame libel malign obloquy opprobrium slander slur stigmatization vilify	commemorate deference exalt hallow homage revere venerate	artful credence credible credulous dupe guileless gullible ingenuous naïve naiveté
FAKE/FALSE/ DOUBTFUL	GIVE UP	LACK OF RESPECT	FUSSY
apocryphal dubious erroneous ersatz fabricate fallacious illicit phony sham sophistry specious spurious	abdicate abjure abnegate cede forgo forsake forswear relinquish renounce	audacious brazen cheeky effrontery gall impertinent impudent insolent nerve presumptuous temerity	finicky nitpicking persnickety squeamish stickler

SECRET clandestine covert furtive oblique skulk sly stealth surreptitious Antonym overt	HIDE/ DISGUISE camouflage cloak dissemble feign guise incognito mask masquerade shroud vener	OVERLY PROUD arrogant bombastic braggart bravado conceited egotistical haughty hubris pompous supercilious swagger vainglorious	SPEAK LESS abbreviated abridge brevity condense laconic monosyllabic pithy reticent succinct taciturn
IRRITABLE cantankerous chagrin choleric churlish curmudgeon grouchy gruff irascible testy	CHEAT/DECEIVE artful artifice bilk chicanery crafty duplicitous dupe fleece guile guileful hoodwink mislead swindle wily	ACT PROPERLY decorous demure prim propriety seemly Antonym execrable flagrant malfeasance unbecoming	TALKATIVE garrulous long winded loquacious prolix verbiage verbose vulgar
SELF CONTROL abstemious abstinence celibacy forbear moderate refrain temperate	TO GUESS/INFER conjecture construe deduce extrapolate surmise	STRANGE eccentric foible idiosyncrasy quirkiness	WITHOUT MISTAKE perfect flawless immaculate impeccable infallible integrity irreproachable probity rectitude unimpeachable

DISLOYALTY	THRIVING	CLEAR	SUPPORTER
betray insidious perfidy Antonym fealty fidelity	burgeon regenerate rejuvenate resuscitation revive	clarity elucidate exposition expound limpid lucid pellucid	advocate ally champion endorse espouse lobbyist proponent protagonist tout
FEELING GUILTY	SHOW - OFF	IMMORAL	Antonym
contrite penitent remorse rueful	flamboyance flaunt grandiloquent grandiose ostentatious pretentious	debauchery decadent degenerate depravity dissolute improbability wayward	adversary antagonist detractor foe impugn inimical nemesis opponent
GAP	UNCLEAR/ HAZY	LOSE STRENGTH/ WEAKEN	TO DISPROVE
abeyance hiatus lull moratorium respite	amorphous becloud cloud indistinct murky nebulous	atrophy attenuate attrition debilitate degenerate degradation effete enervate enfeeble wilt wither flagging sap	belie debunk discredit expostulate rebut refute remonstrate
CORRECT/ REPAIR	DETERMINED		EXCESSIVE PATRIOTISM
amend atone disabuse expiate indemnify redemption redress reparation restitution	resolute dogged endure immutable indefatigable persevere persistence steadfast tenacious		chauvinism fanatic jingoism zealot

PLANNED calculated deliberate forethought intentional premeditated studied Antonym extemporaneous impetuous impromptu improvise offhand	LUCKY fortuitous opportune propitious serendipity Antonym despair hapless wretched	UNWILLING TO SPEND closefisted miserly niggardly parsimonious skinflint stingy stint tightfisted	LACKING ENERGY indolent jaded lackadaisical lackluster languid lassitude lethargic listless sloth sluggish torpor torpid
CANCEL annul disavow gainsay null recant renege repeal repudiate rescind retract revoke void	STUBBORN adamant defiant incurable intractable intransigent obdurate obstinate pertinacious perverse recalcitrant refractory willful	SURE certain absolute categorical certitude conviction emphatic incontrovertible unqualified Antonym contingent provisional qualify tentative	SAD anguish bereaved bleak crestfallen dejected desolate despondent forlorn glum lament lugubrious melancholy plaintive woe
GREED avarice covetous cupidity gluttony rapacious ravenous voracious	RELEVANT apposite apropos germane pertinent UNCLEAR IN MEANING ambivalent ambiguous equivocal	HARD-WORKING assiduous diligent industrious painstaking sedulous toil meticulous punctilious exacting

CALM DOWN	ORDINARY	SPLIT	INCLINATION
allay alleviate ameliorate appease assuage conciliate extenuating mitigate mollify pacify placate propitiate solace temper Antonym exacerbate	banal cliche commonplace derivative hackney humdrum mundane pedestrian platitude plebeian quotidian trite unremarkable	chasm dichotomy gulf rift schism	affinity aptitude bent disposed penchant predilection predisposition proclivity propensity
		SHORT-LIVED	DISTURBED/ AGITATED
		ephemeral evanescent fleeting transient transitory momentary	consternation disconcert dismay disquiet distraught faze fluster foment frenetic hysterical implacable overwrought perturb
	DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND	AGGRESSIVE/ ARGUMENTATIVE
HAPPY	abstract abstruse arcane esoteric mystical obscure occult profound profundity recondite enigmatic inscrutable unintelligible Antonym perspicuous	bellicose belligerent contentious disputatious fractious hostility litigious polemical pugnacious truculent beam ecstasy elated euphoria exhilaration exultant felicity gaiety jest jocular jocund jollity jovial jubilant rapturous regale uproarious		EXCESSIVE FLATTERY	AWKWARD
		fawn fulsome obsequious sycophant	fumble gauche gawky ungainly clumsy Antonym urbane suave

DOMINATING	PARTIAL	CAUTIOUS	REBELLIOUS/ UNCONVENTIONAL
absolute authoritative autocrat despot doctrinaire dogmatic hegemony imperious martinet totalitarian tyrant	subjective bigot discriminatory partisan prejudiced Antonym dispassionate egalitarian equitable evenhanded objectivity disinterested	chary circumspect gingerly heedful leery prudent wary Antonym daredevil folly foolhardy rash reckless	dissident heresy heretical heterodox iconoclast insurgent insurrection maverick nonconformist radical renegade revolutionary subversive Antonym conservative conventional hidebound orthodox reactionary
CALM	DISAPPROVE	MOCK/DISRESPECT	PRAISE
aplomb composure equanimity impassive imperturbable nonchalant phlegmatic placid serene staid stolid tranquil	assail berate castigate decry denounce denunciation diatribe epithet excoriate fulminate invective lambaste rant revile rile tirade upbraid vituperative	abase belittle condescend contempt denigrate deride disdain disparage jeer lampoon partonize sarcastic sardonic satire scoff scorn sneer snicker snide spurn taunt	acclaim accolade applaud approbation commendable eulogy exalt extol glorify hail laud lionize plaudit

AVOID/DODGE	NOT SERIOUS
avert circumvent deflect elude evade evasive parry quibble shirk shunt skirt swerve Antonym head-on	blithe facetious flippant frivolous frivolity insouciant levity Antonym grave gravity
HORRIFYING/ SHOCKING
aghast appalling egregious ghastly grisly gross grotesque gruesome heinous hideous horrendous monstrous morbid unsightly vile

— |

| —

— |

| —

Common Confusing GRE® Words

Following are pairs or groups of words that are similar enough to be confused with one another. Learn exactly what each word means, how to spell it, and use it exactly.

1. acrid sharp, bitterly pungent - Acrid smell of burning hair acrimonious stinging, caustic - Acrimonious argument
2. affection feeling of love affectation artificial show, insincere pretense - Her little affectations annoyed me
3. allude to make an indirect reference elude to escape, evade
4. amiable lovable, agreeable (applies to persons) amicable peaceable, harmonious (applies to arrangements, settlements, and relationships) - The settlement was arrived at amicably amenable readily managed, willing to be led 5. appraise to estimate, judge - Performance appraisal apprise to inform - They apprised the police of the incident
6. alternate every other - The doctor visits her on alternate days alternative choice between two or more alternatives - The hapless man saw no alternative before him but death
7. attenuate reduce - Famished people with attenuated bodies
 extenuate lessen the magnitude (of guilt) - Nothing can extenuate your conduct
8. baneful ruinous, poisonous - Drink was the bane of his life baleful deadly, destructive, sinister - Baleful looks
9. brusque blunt, abrupt - Brusque manner burlesque an imitation that ridicules
10. beneficial useful - His advice proved beneficial to me beneficent kind - Helping the needy is a beneficent act.
11. bridal of wedding, of bride bridle control, check - Try to bridle your passions
12. broach to initiate, open - Broach the topic
 brooch an ornament

13. canker canter	any ulcerous sore, cancer slow gallop
14. cannon canon	big gun law - Canons of justice
15. capricious captious	whimsical, unpredictable fault-finding - Captious mother-in-law
16. censor censure cynosure	to suppress, forbid, delete - Film censors rebuke, to criticize adversely - Censured for being lazy focal point of attraction - she wants to be the cynosure of all eyes
17. cessation cession	stopping - Cessation of hostilities yielding, giving in (ceding) - Territory ceded by one country to another
18. chaotic inchoate	in a state of complete confusion rudimentary, undeveloped
19. climatic climactic	relating to climate pertaining to climax
20. chord cord	string of a musical instrument a thin rope
21. complacent complaisant	self-satisfied, smug - Complacent oaf pleasing, obliging - Complaisant manner
22. continual continuous	going on all the time with short breaks without any break - Yesterday it rained continually, today it is continuous
23. corporal corporeal	bodily - Corporal punishment material - Of this world, material as opposed to spiritual - Corporeal existence
24. collate collation	make a careful comparison - Collating a new edition with an earlier edition a light meal
25. comely comity	attractive, agreeable courtesy, civility
26. condemn contemn	to doom to despise, to contempt

27. decant descant	pour off gently discuss fully, comment on
28. decry descry	disparage, disapprove of catch sight of, to discover by careful observation
29. definite definitive	specific, exact final, conclusive - He made a definitive offer
30. delude delusion delusive illusion	deceive false belief, hallucination, especially one that may be a symptom of madness - He had a delusion that someone was pursuing him deceptive, raising false hopes mistaken perception of reality, seeing something that really does not exist - Optical illusion
31. dependent dependant	relying on one who depends on others for maintenance
32. deprecate depreciate	strongly disapprove to belittle, reduce in value - Shares in this company have depreciated
33. discomfited discomforted	to be defeated, to be frustrated - He hates being constantly discomfited by his father uneasiness of body and mind
34. disinterested uninterested	impartial - Disinterested as a judge not interested
35. enormity enormous	abnormality, outrageousness of something - Enormity of the crime very huge
36. equable equitable	steady, even tempered - Equable climate just, fair - Equitable settlement
37. errant arrant	erring - An errant husband thorough, unmitigated - An arrant rogue
38. esoteric exoteric	known to a chosen few easily understood, suitable for general public
39. excursion incursion	a pleasure trip a sudden invasion - The Hun incursion

40. exigent exiguous	urgent minute, small, trifling - An exiguous diet
41. expatiate expiate	speak at length - He expatiated for an hour make amends for - Expiate a crime
42. economical economic	not wasteful, careful (in spending money) - He is very economical with words Pertaining to the economy - Economic growth
43. expedient expeditious	advantageous - Do what you think expedient acting quickly
44. emigrant immigrant	The Indians who go to settle in the USA are emigrants from India and immigrants in the USA
45. extract extricate	take out - Honey is extracted from flowers pull out - Three workers were extricated from the debris
46. extant extent extinct	still existing - The earliest extant manuscript of this poem size, degree no longer existing
47. facetious factious factitious	humorous - Facetious remark causing dissension, quarrelsome - Factious spirit that led to splits unnatural - Factitious demand for goods as a result of extensive advertising
48. flaunt flout	make a show of, display proudly - Flaunt a new dress defy, disregard - Flout rules with impunity
49. forego forgo	to precede in time or place - The foregoing pages of the book to go without, to abstain from - Forgo pleasures in order to study
50. fractious factious	unruly - A fractious crowd inclined to cause factions, causing dissension
51. froward frowzy	disobedient, perverse, stubborn slovenly, disheveled, dirty - Frowzy barracks
52. fain feign feint	gladly - Fain would I try, but I am afraid of failure pretend - He feigned repentance move to mislead an enemy

53. farther further	matter of distance - I'll not go a step farther in addition to - I have nothing further to say
54. forceful forcible	full of force - He has a forceful personality by force - The police made a forcible entry
55. gage gauge	article pledged as security to measure - Gauge a person's character
56. gentle genteel	mild, polite graceful in form, refinement in taste
57. hoard horde	to accumulate a gang - A horde of marauders terrorized the countryside
58. hypercritical hypocritical	over critical, too critical of small faults not genuine, sham
59. immanent imminent eminent	latent, inherent - Immanent prejudices impending - Impending crisis prominent, lofty
60. imperial imperative imperious	pertaining to an empire - Imperial edicts of Ashoka authoritative, obligatory haughty - Imperious attitude
61. incredible incredulous	beyond belief unbelieving, skeptical - I haven't seen such an incredulous person as you
62. inflammatory inflammable	irritate, excite - Inflammatory speech catches fire easily
63. ingenious ingenuous	skillful, witty innocent, naive
64. irruption eruption	a violent breaking, bursting in - German irruption into Belgium (motion is inward) a violent breaking - bursting out of a volcano (motion is outward)
65. judicial judicious	pertaining to law wise, prudent. A judicious view of the situation
66. luxuriant luxurious	growing profusely (of vegetation, hair) sumptuous, suggesting comfort and ease

67. martial marital	warlike, brave in fighting pertaining to marriage
68. mean mien	stingy, low personal bearing - The severity of his mien
69. meet mete	to come together to allot - Justice was meted out to them
70. mendacity mendicity	lying - Mendacious newspaper reports begging
71. militate mitigate	to work against, hinder, fight against - His sloth militated against his desire to succeed reduce severity of, make milder - Mitigate the suffering
72. mordant morbid	biting, sarcastic gloomy, given to unwholesome thoughts - Morbid imagination
73. mystical mythical	mysterious, secret, incomprehensible imagined, feigned, not real
74. momentary momentous	lasting only for a moment of great importance
75. obdurate objurgate	stubborn scold, severely rebuke
76. official officious	having authoritative standing interfering, meddlesome - His officious aunt mishandled every guest
77. ordinance ordnance	rule of order - Presidential ordinance a military weapon, cannon
78. penurious penury	parsimonious, stingy - The lady, was penurious in her habits extreme poverty - The misery of penury
79. perspicacity perspicuity	having clear insight, quick to judge - A perspicacious critic lucidly expressed - His style is clear and perspicuous
80. pertinacious pertinent	stubborn, persistent - Pertinacious stand suitable, to the point - Pertinent remark

81. perverse perversion perversity	stubborn, intractable corruption, turning from right to wrong stubborn maintenance of a wrong cause
82. piquant pique	pleasantly tart tasting, exciting - A piquant bit of gossip irritation, resentment - He took a pique against me
83. portent portend	Omen, forewarning foretell, presage - This portends war ominous, serious, threatening
84. precipitate precipitous precipitation	hasty, rash - Precipitate actions prove to be harmful steep, like a precipice rainfall
85. prescribe proscribe	lay down the rules for, order prohibit, forbid, denounce publicly
86. presumptive presumptuous	A legal term meaning “that which may be assumed to be true until the contrary is proved” arrogant, unduly confident
87. propitiate propitious	appease - With a propitiatory smile he offered her a large bunch of roses favorable, kindly - At a propitious moment
88. provident providential	thrifty, showing foresight - He proved to be extremely provident in managing the company's affairs strikingly opportune - His providential help at that moment saved her life
89. reign rein	rule curb, means of control
90. restless restive	uneasy, discontented stubborn, obstinate, refractory - The crowd was beginning to get restive
91. septic sceptic	putrefactive, affected by bacteria person who doubts
92. simulate dissimulate	to pretend to be what one is not to hide what one is feeling
93. spacious specious	having a lot of space false, though seemingly true - A specious argument

94. sensual sensuous	of desires - Sensual pleasures appealing to the senses - The sensuous imagery of Keats' poems
95. temperance temperament	moderation, sobriety the physical or mental character of a person
96. temporary temporal	lasting for a short time only as opposed to spiritual
97. tortuous torturous	winding - Long tortuous sentences painful
98. transcendent transcendental	superior, supreme vague, visionary, speculative
99. turgid turbid	swollen, inflated, pompous - Turgid prose muddy, clouded - Turbid waters
100. unexceptionable unexceptional	above reproach, altogether admirable ordinary
101. urban urbane	of the city smooth, polite, polished - urbane manners
102. vain vein	conceited a blood vessel; mood - In a merry vein
103. venial venal	trivial, easily pardonable - A venial wrong committed by the young man capable of being bribed - Country governed by a venal officialdom
104. veracity voracity	truthfulness greediness
105. whet wet	to sharpen - To whet the appetite rainy, damp
106. willing wilful	disposed, having no reluctance obstinate, perverse - Wilful murder

— |

| —

— |

| —

— |

| —

— |

| —